Members of the World Petroleum Council

On behalf of PetroTrans Company LTD I'd like to speak for all board members and the company as a whole in regards to the support of putting Hong Kong forward for the 2020 bid to hold the World Petroleum Congress. Having such a distinguished and renowned industry event taking place in the heart of Hong Kong has opportunities for all involved.

What we can offer the congress won't be beaten by another destination, our hospitality won't be conquered, and we, at PetroTrans can offer full support with regards to the day to day programs, exhibits, industry tours and regulatory assistance.

PetroTrans, established in 1997, is an organisation deeply involved in the upstream oil and gas industry. We have renowned reputation for excellent services and connections which are allowing us to remain the leading company in the industry.

The opportunity to showcase the WPC on our home land is one we have long wished for.

This opportunity allows us to show the world what we can offer on varying levels.

The Oil and Petroleum industry within China and Hong Kong can demonstrate excellent industry practice, excellent corporate social responsibility and sustainable practice.

We welcome you to our country.
Best Regards

Joy Yan
Chief Executive PetroTrans

Dear members of the World Petroleum Council

I am delighted to learn that Hong Kong is being proposed as a venue for the 23rd World Petroleum Congress in 2020. It will be a unique experience for Hong Kong as is one of the most populous cities in China.

Hong Kong is an ideal business tourism and congress centre with its advanced tourism infrastructure, transportation facilities, conference, exhibition and social event opportunities. The people of Hong Kong with all of our civil foundation and institutions will be very happy to show our hospitality to the participants of your organization.

In conclusion, we would like to underline that Hong Kong with its considerable experience within the scope of international conferences is more than ready host 23rd World Petroleum Congress in 2020.

I would like to assure that you and your union that full support my Governorship will be provided a successful realization of this event.

Yours faithfully

Leung Chun-ying
Chief Executive of Hong Kong
