The three main characters I will be talking about are Peak, Ethan, and Zopa.

A main trait I have for Zopa is that he is mysterious.

- Just knows things.
- He also doesn't understand why he just knows things.
- Doesn't explain stuff a lot.

The next main trait for Zopa is Calm.

- When in risky situations is very chill.
- Never freaks out.

Ethan was a camera man who was asked to come along and help.
Ethan's main trait is secretive.

- Didn't tell Peak about his real past until it was unavoidable.
- Didn't reveal his personal skills until he needed to.

I also think Ethan is brave.

- He went with Peak to help the people who got kidnapped.
- He risked his life for others.

Theme

Perseverance and Bravery.

In the book it shows a lot of examples of people showing perseverance to help achieve and overcome obstacles.

It shows Bravery by talking about characters like

Peak and Ethan without directly saying they are being brave only showing their acts of bravery.

Connections

I can connection what happens in this book to what is happening in the real world because it talks about Afghanistan going through hard times. I can Also connect this to me because the theme is to persevere and I sometimes need to persevere to. There have been times where I have needed to persevere and didn't and times where I did.
