

The Man in the Mirror (A)

Thecasesolutions.com

Central Idea

Thecasesolutions.com

An individual must improve themselves to change the world.

que
n

Literary Technique And Definition

Thecasesolutions.com

Repetition: The action of repeating something that has already been said or written.

Imagery: visually descriptive or figurative language, especially in a literary work.

Quote #1

"I see the kids in the streets with not enough to eat, Who am I to be blind? Pretending to not see their needs."

Thecasesolutions.com

- People need to see what's wrong with themselves or the world to make a change.

Quote #2

"I'm starting with the man in the mirror, I'm asking him to change his ways, and no message could have been any clearer if you want to make the world a better place take a look at yourself and then make that change."

- In order to make a change it starts with yourself and then you can help make the world a better place.
- Michael Jackson uses repetition by repeating the chorus to emphasize that change begins with yourself.

Thecasesolutions.com

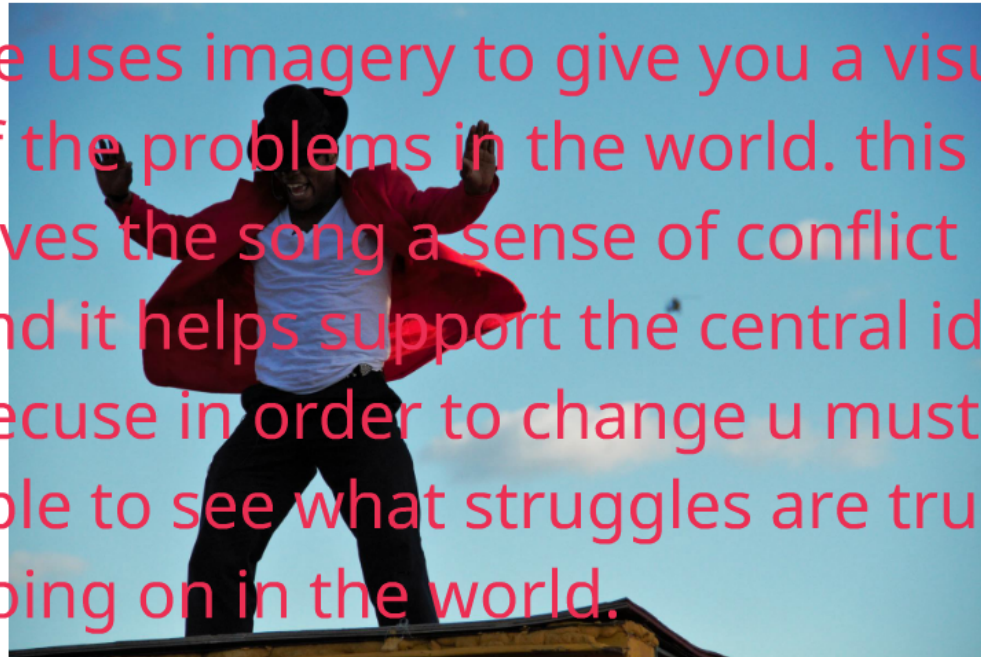

Michael Jackson uses repetition to show the importance of an individual to change themselves and the way they act to then change the world and make it a better place.

Thecasesolutions.com

Imagery

He uses imagery to give you a visual of the problems in the world. this gives the song a sense of conflict and it helps support the central idea becuse in order to change u must be able to see what struggles are truly going on in the world.

Thecasesolutions.com

The Man in the Mirror (A)

Thecasesolutions.com

