In chapter twenty five 'Calling Geese' Will helps teach Koois's grandchildren how to trap and spend more time with the family than he did before. Will then begins to look for another place to set up winter camp because he does not want the authority's to be alerted of his position and him and Koois go hunting for Geese before Koois and his family leave before winter sets in. Will and Koois manage to make off with numerous geese that will help Will survive the coming winter. During their hunt Koois tells Will why Koois is always forgetting things, and constantly telling stories. Koois has diabetes and it has been getting worse over the past year and will likely kill her. Furthermore Will must kill an injured Goose that has been shot and is struggling to fly away. Will explains how this has always been a difficult part for him but carries out the act anyways because he does not want the animal to suffer.

In chapter twenty six 'Towards' Annie and Gordon attend a party in New York hosted by Soleil. This is where Annie meets Daniel who approaches Annie believing she is Suzanne. Daniel wants to know where Suzanne, and Gus is because according to Daniel they walked away owing Daniel a significant amount of money. Shortly after Annie first meets Soleil where she speaks Cree to her. She begins with complimenting Soleil and introducing herself, but then begins to mock her in Cree, telling her that she has green hair, and is too skinny and needs to eat more moose meat among other things. Annie then leaves Soleil and heads out to the rooftop where she finds Kenny where she tells Annie to be cautious of Daniel or 'Danny' because 'once you open the door to them, they're already moved in'. Kenny warns not to allow Daniel to come into her life because as soon as that happens he will never go away. Finally at the end of the chapter Annie writes a postcard to her mom back in Mooseoon to tell her that that she is fine and having a wonderful time and that she will stay in touch. However she signs under Suzanne's name rather than her own.
