

Via Verde

TheCaseSolutions.com

Fears

Creon fears that people will try to overthrow him by trying to overthrow his law.

TheCaseSolutions.com

TheCaseSolutions.com

Quotes

Proclamation

Creon: "I have decreed, and I stand alone, that no man shall bury the dead of the house of Oedipus."

Faction

Creon: "I have decreed, and I stand alone, that no man shall bury the dead of the house of Oedipus."

Loyalties

- Creon is loyal to his own law.
- Creon is loyal to the city by not letting family connections rule his decisions.

City of Thebes

TheCaseSolutions.com

Focus

Creon's focus is on maintaining the law and the stability of the city, even if it means sacrificing family ties.

TheCaseSolutions.com

Quotes

Lead

Creon: "I have decreed, and I stand alone, that no man shall bury the dead of the house of Oedipus."

Fire

Creon: "I have decreed, and I stand alone, that no man shall bury the dead of the house of Oedipus."

TheCaseSolutions.com

Perception

Creon's perception is that the law is the most important thing in the city, and he is willing to sacrifice everything else to maintain it.

TheCaseSolutions.com

Via Verde

TheCaseSolutions.com

Fears

Creon fears that people will try to overthrow him by turning on his people and siding with the new king.

TheCaseSolutions.com

TheCaseSolutions.com

Quotes

Proclamation
I have decreed that Polixenes, the king of Sicily, shall be banished from our land. He shall depart with his daughter, and his wife shall be left to her fate.

Father
I have no more to say. I have no more to say. I have no more to say. I have no more to say.

TheCaseSolutions.com

Focus

Creon's focus is on maintaining the stability of his kingdom and ensuring that the law is upheld.

TheCaseSolutions.com

Loyalties

- Creon is loyal to his own law.
- Creon is loyal to the city by not letting family connections rule his decisions.

City of Thebes

TheCaseSolutions.com

Quotes

Leads
I have decreed that Polixenes, the king of Sicily, shall be banished from our land. He shall depart with his daughter, and his wife shall be left to her fate.

Five
I have no more to say. I have no more to say. I have no more to say. I have no more to say.

TheCaseSolutions.com

Perception

Creon's perception is that the law is the most important thing in his kingdom.

TheCaseSolutions.com

Loyalties

- ~ Creon is loyal to his own law.
- ~ Creon is loyal to the city by not letting family connections rule his decisions.

City of Thebes

TheCaseSolutions.com

Fears

- ~ Creon fears that people are trying to overthrow him as king.
- ~ Creon worries that people are being bribed to do things he has forbidden.

King Being Overthrown

TheCaseSolutions.com

Perception

~ Creon views others as subordinate to him. He thinks that he is superior and everyone has to obey him or else they will pay.

Viewing People Below Yourself

TheCaseSolutions.com

Focus

~ Creon's goal is to be in charge of every single person of Thebes, and to make sure they do as he says and follow all of his laws.

Creon

TheCaseSolutions.com

Quotes

Loyalty

"I call God to witness that if I saw my country headed for ruin, I should not be afraid to speak out plainly; but we must remember that friends made at the risk of wrecking our ship are not real friends at all" (Sophocles 1074).

Fear

"There have been those who have whispered together, stiff necked anarchists, putting their heads together, scheming against me in the alleys. These are the men, and they have bribed my own guard to do this thing" (Sophocles 1078).

TheCaseSolutions.com

Quotes

Perception

"But whoever shows by word and deed that his on the side of the state he shall have my respect while his is living, and my reverence when he is dead" (Sophocles 1075).

Focus

"This is my command, and you can see the wisdom behind it... As long as I am king, no traitor is going to be honored with the loyal man" (Sophocles 1075).

Via Verde

TheCaseSolutions.com

Fears

Creon fears that people will try to overthrow him by turning on his people and siding with the new king.

TheCaseSolutions.com

TheCaseSolutions.com

Quotes

Proclamation
I have not yet received your proclamation. I have not yet received your proclamation. I have not yet received your proclamation.

Faction
I have not yet received your proclamation. I have not yet received your proclamation. I have not yet received your proclamation.

Focus

Creon's focus is on the law and the city. He is determined to maintain the law and the city's stability.

TheCaseSolutions.com

Loyalties

- Creon is loyal to his own law.
- Creon is loyal to the city by not letting family connections rule his decisions.

City of Thebes

TheCaseSolutions.com

Quotes

Ready
I have not yet received your proclamation. I have not yet received your proclamation. I have not yet received your proclamation.

Free
I have not yet received your proclamation. I have not yet received your proclamation. I have not yet received your proclamation.

TheCaseSolutions.com

Perception

Creon's perception is that the law is the most important thing in the city. He believes that the law should be followed by everyone.

TheCaseSolutions.com