

So, You Want to Be a Business Professor?

Outlook
 The outlook for business professors is positive, with a projected increase in enrollment.

Thecasesolutions.com

- To be a Business Professor it falls under the Pathway of Business
- A Business Professor requires a Bachelor's Degree

Salary
Thecasesolutions.com

- The median for their salary in Alabama would be $65,830
- Nationally it would be $73,060

Thecasesolutions.com
What Does a Business Professor Do?

- Business Professor teaches many important variables in an individual's business
- The main goal of a business professor is to educate students and help them understand the necessary to succeed in the world of business
- Business professor is a graduate thinking decision with a lot of help, questions or answers and other business

Thecasesolutions.com

How To Be A Business Professor

Thecasesolutions.com
Work Environment

- The work environment for a Business Professor is out in a College Office or in a classroom
- The only main work you would have to do is to give to teach to your students and to help to explain to them what they need to learn
- A full-time professor would work 32-36 hours teaching and 8 hours of office time with meetings and being to classes

Requirements
 Graduate Degree
 Business Administration

Skills
 Communication
 Leadership
 Problem Solving
 Time Management

So, You Want to Be a Business Professor?

Thecasesolutions.com

- To be a Business Professor, A path under the Pathway of Business
- A Business Professor requires a Bachelor's Degree

Salary

Thecasesolutions.com

- The median for this salary in Alabama would be $65,331.
- Nationally it would be $73,860.

State	Salary
Alabama	$65,331
National	$73,860

Thecasesolutions.com

What Does a Business Professor Do?

- A Business Professor teaches college courses or serves as a faculty member in a business school.
- They may also advise students on their academic and professional careers.
- A Business Professor may also be involved in research and publishing articles in business journals.
- A Business Professor may also be involved in the development of new programs or courses and setting syllabi.

Thecasesolutions.com

How To Be A Business Professor

Work Environment

Thecasesolutions.com

- The work environment for a Business Professor would be on a College Campus or in a classroom.
- The only primary labor you would have to do is to be able to teach your students and be able to answer their questions.
- A Business Professor usually works 32-40 hours each week and 6 hours of office time with meetings and being in a classroom.

Thecasesolutions.com

How To Be A Business Professor

Thecasesolutions.com

- To be a Business Professor, it falls under the Pathway of Business.
- A Business Professor requires a Bachelor's Degree.

Thecasesolutions.com

What Does a Business Professor Do?

- A Business Professor teaches college courses on various topics within the field of business.
- The main duty of a business professor is to provide students with the information and skills necessary to succeed in the world of business.
- A business professor usually helps in making decisions of the creation of new programs or policies, and setting budgets.

Work Environment

Thecasesolutions.com

- The work environment for a Business Professor would be on a College Campus, or in a classroom.
- The only manual labor you would have to do is to be able to teach to your students, and be able to explain to them what they need to learn.
- A full time professor would work 12- 16 hours teaching time, and 6 hours of office time with meetings, and talking to students

Requirements

Thecasesolutions.com

A bachelor's degree is the lowest education to be a Business Professor, a lot of people need a master's degree and some may need a doctorate degree.

Business Schools

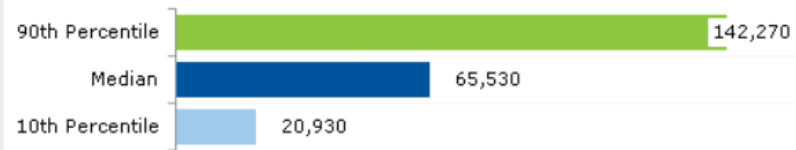

Thecasesolutions.com

- Harvard University
- Stanford University
- University of Pennsylvania- Wharton
- University of California- Berkeley
- Columbia University

Salary

Thecasesolutions.com

- The median for their salary in Alabama would be $65,530.

- Nationally it would be $73,660.

