

How has it affected the use of basic technology?

- Has made it easier to use
- Has made it more accessible
- Has made it more affordable
- Has made it more convenient

TheCaseSolutions.com

How many types are there?

- A lot of different types
- Many different brands
- Each brand makes it a little different than the other

TheCaseSolutions.com

My Personal Experience

- I like to listen to music
- Great in the car
- Live streaming apps
- Love it

TheCaseSolutions.com

Features

- Plays CDs
- Play tapes
- Podcasts
- Manual Tuning
- Some can record

TheCaseSolutions.com

Technologies In Our World

Digital Satellite Radio
By: Josh Prinz

What is it used for?

Used for listening to music, podcasts, and other audio content. It is also used for navigation and weather updates.

TheCaseSolutions.com

Where did it start?

- In the United States
- In the late 1990s
- First used in the US
- Now used in many other countries
- Some people use it for navigation
- Some use it for weather updates

TheCaseSolutions.com

Who invented it?

- Invented by the inventor of the digital satellite radio
- Invented by the inventor of the digital satellite radio
- Invented by the inventor of the digital satellite radio
- Invented by the inventor of the digital satellite radio

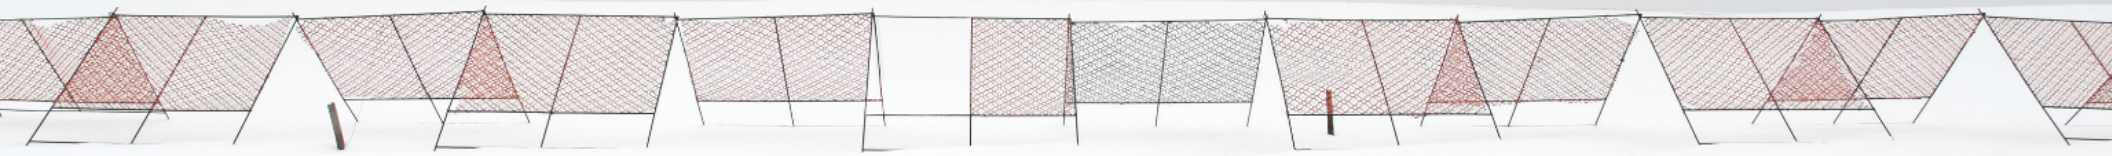

TheCaseSolutions.com

Radiometer, 2003

- Thriving in a Big Data World

TheCaseSolutions.com

Radiometer, 2003

- Thriving in a Big Data World

TheCaseSolutions.com

Who invented it?

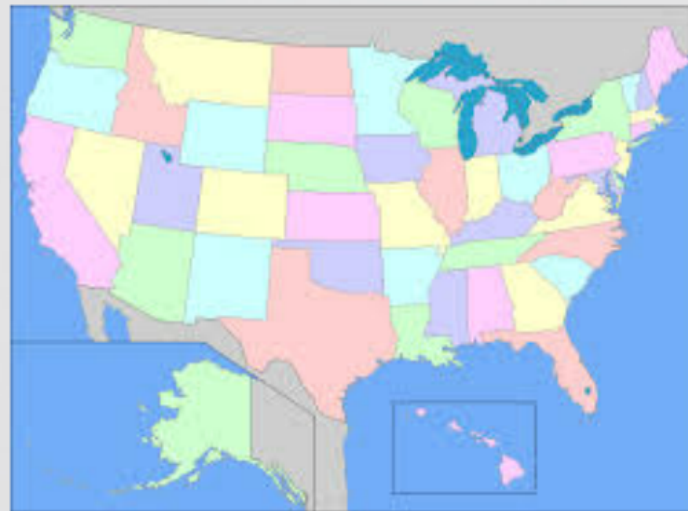

- Martine Rothblatt invented it
- Owned worldspace
- Born in Chicago
- Worked with NASA
- Studied astronomy at University Of Maryland

TheCaseSolutions.com

Where did it start?

- XM first launched in Dallas and San diego
- Two months later XM lauched worldwide
- Sirius first launched in Denver, Houston, Phoenix, and Jackson, Miss.

TheCaseSolutions.com

What is its purpose?

To make the radio experience better with things like:

- Better reception than local stations
- Better channel selection than local stations
- Less commercials than local stations

Features

- Plays CD's
- Play tapes
- Presets
- Manual Tuning
- Some can record

TheCaseSolutions.com

How has it affected the use of future technology?

- Big step in technology
- Everything will start to be even more wireless
- Will become even more popular

How many types are there?

- A lot of different types
- Mainly different brands
- Each brand makes it a little different than the other

My Personal Experience

- I like to listen to music
- Great in the car
- Live streaming apps
- Love it

TheCaseSolutions.com