Hitting The Ice Burg

Time and date: 11:40 pm April 14, 1912. 2.

The Titanic hit the ice burg at 11:40 pm on April 14, 1912. Many people thought it was no big deal and played with parts of the ice left on the ship. But it turned out to be a big deal after they started noticing a few changes on the ship. They were selling Santa while the ship was sinking. It's a type of coffee.

What Is The Titanic?

Introduction

The Titanic was well known as the largest and most luxurious passenger liner in the world in the early 20th century. It was designed by Thomas Andrews and funded by J. P. Morgan. The Titanic was known as the "unsinkable" ship. But it hit an ice burg which created shock waves around the globe.

J. P. Morgan

J. P. Morgan was very famous in history. There are several company's named after him. He was a financier, banker, philanthropist, and art collector. Born April 17, 1837 and died March 31, 1913.

This is the end of our project on the R.M.S. Titanic. I hope you enjoyed it very much. Did you know that on the 100th anniversary of the Titanic, there was a restaurant that served the same thing that the ship was serving for 100 dollars per person.
