

TRUE or FALSE?

According to the article, what is the ideal goal of economic sanctions?
How is economic coercion counterproductive?

What are the two likely outcomes regarding the impact of sanctions in target countries?

According to the article, what is the naive theory of economic sanctions? The alternative view?

How do sanctions contribute to the repressive capacity of the state?

Better or Worse? The effect of economic sanctions on human rights
By: Dursun Peksen

Economic Sanction and Human Rights
Presenters:
Dola & Alex

Rewarding Human Rights?
Selective Aid Sanctions against Repressive States
By Richard Nelson

How should we move forward?

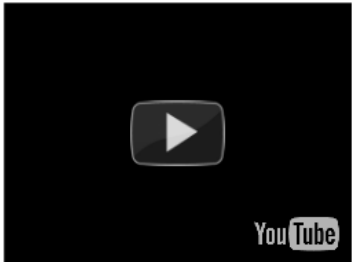

Economic Sanctions and Human Rights: Part of the Problem or Part of the Solution?
By George Lopez and David Cartright

When assessing the implications that sanctions have on human rights, who are the most affected?

Do the humanitarian costs outweigh the political benefits? Should we abandon the use of economic sanctions? Or maintain the status quo? Any alternative recommendations?

How sanctions may help create an equalization of power between a government and an opposition that would result in some situations in the attainment of and protection for human rights

When are sanctions most effective?

Economic Sanctions

Thecasesolutions.com

Economic Sanction and Human Rights

*Presenters:
Dola & Alex*

TRUE or FALSE?

