

Empire Investment Group's TheCasesolutions.com

Trade

Imports have been growing faster than exports, resulting into a wider trade imbalance. Between 2001 and 2005 exports increased by 12.5%, 3.5%, 14.2%, 22.4% and 24.1% while imports increased by 5.0%, 6.7% and 28.1% before reducing to 25.5% and 19.0% for the respective years.

climate

the climate is not uniform as the altitude modifies the climate.
southern uganda is wetter with rain generally spread throught the year.

technology/innovation

there is a number of systems of communication in unganda, including a system of telophone,radio,and televation broadcast,internet,mail,and servel newspappers culture

the culture of unganda is made up of a diverse range of ethnic groups. christains make up 85.2% of ungandas population.

geography

the country is located on the east african plateau

