Play at a Hospital?

- Medical City Children's Hospital is a hospital located in Dallas that is part of a general hospital.
- However when most think of play, one doesn't typically think of a hospital
- Child Life Specialist help to fill this hospital with play through the spaces, activities, and resources provided to children and their families

Different Types of Play Spaces

Different locations around the hospital have either play rooms that serve the floor in which the children, and siblings can use, or there are Child Life Specialist closets in which have toys, activities, etc. for play in which can be brought to a room.
