

Homeowner vs. Mortgage Company

- Each side will give their response according to the perspective of their assigned team
- Raise your hand if you would like to talk
- If someone is speaking wait till they are done and then opposing team may give feedback
- Keep answers short and to the point

Thecasesolutions.com
Which ethics theories are being applied here?

Thecasesolutions.com
Universal Ethics

Thecasesolutions.com
Conflict of Interest

Question 2

If homeowners made poor financial decisions -- taking too much equity out of their houses or buying at the wrong time -- do the predatory lending practices of the banks and mortgage companies justify walking away from these mortgages?

Summary

Thecasesolutions.com

- Mortgage company dealing with many foreclosures
- Houses are worth 30-40% less than what they paid
- They can still afford the mortgage, but is it worth it?
- All Staff meeting to discuss problem
- Senior leaders remind everyone that a mortgage is a legal contract
- Multi-billion dollar bailouts leave people as victims
- Media coverage is negative to banks
- Mortgage holders are unknown
- Foreclosure is backed up

Thecasesolutions.com

Question 3

Are homeowners really "throwing good money after bad" in making payments on mortgages for homes that are worth much less than the mortgage?

Question 4

Would you walk away from your mortgage in this situation? How would you justify that decision?

Kunshan, Incorporated: The Making of China's Richest Town

Thecasesolutions.com

Homeowner vs. Mortgage Company

- Each side will give their response according to the perspective of their assigned team
- Raise you hand if you would like to talk
- If someone is speaking wait till they are done and then opposing team may give feedback
- Keep answers short and to the point

Thecasesolutions.com
Which ethics theories are being applied here?

Thecasesolutions.com
Universal Ethics

Thecasesolutions.com
Conflict of Interest

Question 2

If homeowners made poor financial decisions -- taking too much equity out of their houses or buying at the wrong time -- do the predatory lending practices of the banks and mortgage companies justify walking away from these mortgages?

Summary

Thecasesolutions.com

- Mortgage company dealing with many foreclosures
- Houses are worth 30-40% less than what they paid
- They can still afford the mortgage, but is it worth it?
- All Staff meeting to discuss problem
- Senior leaders remind everyone that a mortgage is a legal contract
- Multi-billion dollar bailouts leave people as victims
- Media coverage is negative to banks
- Mortgage holders are unknown
- Foreclosure is backed up

Thecasesolutions.com

Question 3

Are homeowners really "throwing good money after bad" in making payments on mortgages for homes that are worth much less than the mortgage?

Question 4

Would you walk away from your mortgage in this situation? How would you justify that decision?

Kunshan, Incorporated: The Making of China's Richest Town

Thecasesolutions.com

- All Staff meeting to discuss problem
- Senior leaders remind everyone that a mortgage is a legal contract
- Multi-billion dollar bailouts leave people as victims
- Media coverage is negative to banks
- Mortgage holders are unknown
- Foreclosure is backed up

Question 3

Are homeowners really "throwing good money after bad" in making payments on mortgages for homes that are worth much less than the mortgage?

Question 4

Would you walk away from your mortgage in this situation? How would you justify that decision?

Kunshan, Incorporated: The Making of China's Richest Town

Thecasesolutions.com

Summary

Thecasesolutions.com

- Mortgage company dealing with many foreclosures
- Houses are worth 30-40% less than what they paid
- They can still afford the mortgage, but is it worth it?
- All Staff meeting to discuss problem
- Senior leaders remind everyone that a mortgage is a legal contract
- Multi-billion dollar bailouts leave people as victims
- Media coverage is negative to banks
- Mortgage holders are unknown
- Foreclosure is backed up

Thecasesolutions.com

Thecasesolutions.com

Which ethics theories are being applied here?

Thecasesolutions.com

Universal Ethics

Thecasesolutions.com

Conflict of Interest

Thecasesolutions.com

Universal Ethics

Thecasesolutions.com

Conflict of Interest

Farcus

by David Waisglass
Gordon Coulthart

Thecasesolutions.com

© 1994 Farcus Cartoons

WAISGLASS/COULTHART

www.farcus.com

“What conflict of interest?!
I work here in my spare time.”