

Location of Childhood Home

Lyndon moved to Johnson City, Texas, which was named after his Father's cousin James Polk.

Jobs before Presidency

He was a teacher at multiple schools which include: Welhausen School, Pearsall High School, and Sam Houston High School. He also was a janitor during his college years to pay through his tuition.

36th President of the United States

Lyndon B. Johnson became the 36th President of the United States after the assassination of John F. Kennedy.

Lyndon b. Johnson

Date of Birth and Location

Lyndon B. Johnson was born on August 27th, 1908 in Stonewall, Texas.

Date of Death

Johnson died on January 22nd, 1973.

Children of Lyndon

Johnson had two children, Lynda Bird and Luci Baines. Lyndon and Lady Bird named their children after them, with the initials LBJ. Lyndon B. Johnson, Lady Bird Johnson, Lynda Bird Johnson, and Luci Baines Johnson.

Interesting Anecdotes

- Lyndon B. Johnson was born on August 27th, 1908 in Stonewall, Texas.
- Lyndon B. Johnson was born on August 27th, 1908 in Stonewall, Texas.
- Lyndon B. Johnson was born on August 27th, 1908 in Stonewall, Texas.

Law School

Issues during Presidency

Lyndon's Parents

Samuel Ealy Johnson was Lyndon's father.

Rebekah Baines was Lyndon's mother.

Elementary School

Lyndon attended Junction School in Johnson City.

Highschool

Lyndon attended Johnson City High School.

ndon b. Joh

Presidential Biography

36th President

of the United States

Lyndon B. Johnson became the 36th President of the United States after the assassination of John F. Kennedy.

Years of Presidency

Lyndon B. Johnson served as the 36th President from
November 22nd, 1963 to January 20th, 1969

