

Sir Alex Ferguson: Managing Manchester United

Sir Alex Ferguson: Managing Manchester United

Alexandra Sarmiento F.

Sir Alex Ferguson: Managing Manchester United

Sir Alex Ferguson: Managing Manchester United

Alexandra Sarmiento F.

1. What broad sources did Clubs income derive from?
Clubs derived income from three broad sources: stadium based revenues, broadcast and other media revenues, and commercial revenues. They could also make (or lose) money through the buying and selling of players.

6. What is Ferguson's idea of being the right person for the job?
Ferguson's idea of being the right person for the job is to be a young and more experienced player who is a good leader. Ferguson also had the benefit of youth in England. The players were in and when the player from roughly 20 to 30, and the player who comes in. The idea is to bring the younger player into training and making the player who is the best one to be a leader.

7. During training sessions, what are the questions that you have asked him?
Ferguson asked the players to think about the game and the manager. He asked them to think about the game and the manager. He asked them to think about the game and the manager. He asked them to think about the game and the manager.

10. Name United's six main rivals
1. LIVERPOOL FC - England
 2. ARSENAL FC - England
 3. CHELSEA FC - England
 4. MANCHESTER CITY - England
 5. REAL MADRID C.F. - Spain
 6. FC BARCELONA - Spain

3. In 2013, what football club was the world's most decorated one?
In 2013, the world's most decorated club was Real Madrid.

10. What is Ferguson's focus when assessing the losses to the players?
In general, Ferguson's focus is on the players who are the most important to the club. He is looking for the players who are the most important to the club. He is looking for the players who are the most important to the club.

10. What does Ferguson do when players get to the point?
When players get to the point, Ferguson is looking for the players who are the most important to the club. He is looking for the players who are the most important to the club. He is looking for the players who are the most important to the club.

11. What are the key factors in the success of a manager?
The key factors in the success of a manager are the players who are the most important to the club. He is looking for the players who are the most important to the club. He is looking for the players who are the most important to the club.

Sir Alex Ferguson: Managing Manchester United

Alexandra Sarmiento F.

1. What broad sources did Clubs income derive from?

Clubs derived income from three broad sources: stadium based revenues, broadcast and other media revenues, and commercial revenues. They could also make (or lose) money through the buying and selling of players.