Problem Statement/Question: How Has Technology Impacted Plagiarism and Cheating in Education?

Title: Plagiarism and Cheating

Data/Evidence:
- 35% of students admit to cheating at least once with cell phones
- 52% of teens admitted to some form of cheating involving the internet

Context:
Technology has made cheating easier - more kids do it!

Technology Paper

Different Perspectives:
- Technology has impacted cheating/plaigiarizing negatively
- Some students accept cheating as a common practice
- Some parents don't admit their children cheat

Implications/Solutions:
- Bibliographies
- What is plagiarism?
- Honor codes
- Computer management systems
- Turnitin.com

Opinon:
Variety of methods to decrease cheating

Title: Plagiarism and Cheating

Problem Statement/Question: How Has Technology Impacted Plagiarism and Cheating in Education?

Context:
Technology has made cheating easier - more kids do it!

hnology Paper