

Travel Time on US-202 South A

TheCaseSolutions.com

TheCaseSolutions.com

Final Stop: Local Government

The Case Solutions is a platform that provides a comprehensive overview of the local government structure. It details the roles and responsibilities of various local government entities, including city councils, county commissions, and school boards. The platform also offers resources for citizens to engage with their local government, such as public hearings and online comment systems.

TheCaseSolutions.com

Stop Two Cont...

TheCaseSolutions.com

Stop Two: State Government

The Case Solutions is a platform that provides a comprehensive overview of the state government structure. It details the roles and responsibilities of various state government entities, including the governor, state legislature, and state courts. The platform also offers resources for citizens to engage with their state government, such as public hearings and online comment systems.

TheCaseSolutions.com

TheCaseSolutions.com

Stop One Cont...

- Where the president (executive branch) resides in the White House (2400 Pennsylvania Ave). The Congress, House of Representatives and Senate legislative branch is housed in the Capitol Building (500 E Capitol St, NE). The Supreme Court (judicial branch) is located at 1 st St, NE. All of these are located in Washington, D.C.
- When the capital should be visited in order to learn more about the history of the United States and be involved in politics.
- How the federal government will be visited in various locations during the meetings and other events held in the White House to reach citizens about political issues.

TheCaseSolutions.com

Stop One: Federal Government

The Case Solutions is a platform that provides a comprehensive overview of the federal government structure. It details the roles and responsibilities of various federal government entities, including the president, Congress, and the Supreme Court. The platform also offers resources for citizens to engage with their federal government, such as public hearings and online comment systems.

TheCaseSolutions.com

Travel Time on US-202 South A

TheCaseSolutions.com

TheCaseSolutions.com

Final Stop: Local Government

10 7 mi

The Case Solutions logo and website URL.

Stop Two Cont...

The Case Solutions logo and website URL.

Stop Two State Government

The Case Solutions logo and website URL.

The Case Solutions logo and website URL.

Stop One Cont...

- Where the president (executive branch) resides in the White House (2400 Pennsylvania Ave). The Congress, House of Representatives and Senate legislative branch is found in the Capitol Building (500 E Capital St, NE). The Supreme Court (judicial branch) is located at 1 st St NE. All of these are located in Washington, D.C.
- Where the capital should be visited in order to learn more about the history of the United States and be involved in politics.
- How the federal government will be visited in visitors because of things like meetings and other events held in the White House to reach citizens about political issues.

TheCaseSolutions.com

Stop One: Federal Government

The Case Solutions logo and website URL.

Stop One: Federal Government

- Destination: The United States Federal level of Government is centered in Washington D.C., the nation's capital.
- Who: The president, Donald Trump (2017-2020), of the United States is the head of the federal government. I recommend any tourists and citizens to visit who would like to enjoy observing historical buildings, artifacts and monuments.
- What: While in Washington, there are many things to do such as- visiting the Smithsonian Museums, riding on the Potomac River, riding on tour buses, visiting the National Mall and other memorials, touring the White House, visiting the Washington Monument, etc. As you can see, there is an endless list of things that can be done in Washington D.C.
- Interesting Fact: D.C. is the home to one of the only spy museums in the world called the International Spy Museum
- When: Spring is the best time to visit the nation's capital , which is typically the time when many schools and families take trips and the famous cherry blossoms are seen.

Stop One Cont...

- Where: The president (executive branch) resides in the White House (1600 Pennsylvania Ave). The Congress, House of Representatives and Senate (legislative branch), meet in the Capitol Building (100 E Capitol St. NE). The Supreme Court (judicial branch) is located at 1 1st St NE. All of these are located in Washington, D.C.
- Why: The capital should be visited in order to learn more about the history of the United States and be involved in politics.
- How: The federal government will be evident to visitors because of things like meetings and other events held in the White House to teach citizens about political issues.

TheCaseSolutions.com

TheCaseSolutions.com

Stop Two: State Government

- Destination: Tennessee
- Who: The governor, Bill Haslam, is the head of the Tennessee state government. People who enjoy shopping, witnessing agriculture, and historical sites should visit my state. Tennessee is the former home to celebrities such as: Isaac Hayes, Elvis Presley, and a plethora of more former and there are new celebrities.
- What: There are many things to do while in Tennessee like visiting museums like the Country Music Hall of Fame, homes of celebrities like Graceland, the Tennessee Aquarium, Dollywood, site-seeing, etc.
- When: Tennessee was founded on June 1, 1796. And the best time to visit is the Summer time when tourist attractions are frequently visited and festivities occur like the Country Music Festival.

TheCaseSolutions.com

Stop Two Cont...

- Where: Tennessee's state capital is located in Nashville, Tennessee. In general, Tennessee is located in the Southeastern United States.
- Why: Why not visit Tennessee? It has so much to offer including history, scenery, and many things to do.
- How: The state government is evident to visitors by things like state law enforcement and laws.

TheCaseSolutions.com

TheCaseSolutions.com

Final Stop: Local Government

- Destination: Memphis, Tennessee
- Who: The head of Memphis's local government is the mayor, Jim Strickland. Also, there are many local celebrities like Elvis Presley (past) and Blochboy JB (present).
- What: There are lots of things to do in Memphis such as: visiting landmarks downtown, visiting the Memphis Zoo, visiting local parks, museums and other historical and fun places. Also, Memphis is known for things like its famous, distinct barbecue. Additionally, Memphis has a moist continental climate in which you can experience cool winter, hot and humid summers, variability in spring and fall, and rain throughout the year.
- When: The best time to visit Memphis is the spring time which varies in temperatures but has a beautiful scenery. Also, Memphis was founded in 1819.
- Where: Memphis is located in the southwest corner of Tennessee and along the Mississippi River. And the best place to eat is Rendezvous, a famous bbq restaurant.
- Why: You should visit Memphis because there is never a dull moment and always something to do.