Several Types of Prostitution

Thecasesolutions.com

- a. Street prostitution – Client solicited on the street, park or other public places services in side street, vehicles or short stay premises.
- b. Brothel prostitution – Premises explicitly dedicated to providing sex. It's better security than street.
- c. Escort prostitution – Client contact sex worker by phone or hotel staff. Most covert form of sex work. Relatively expensive because of low client turnover services provided at hotel room or clients home.
- d. Private prostitution – Client contact sex worker by phone. Premises provided in workers premises.
- e. Club, pub, karaoke bar, bar prostitution – Clients solicited in alcohol vending venues and services on site or elsewhere.
- f. Door knock or hotel – Unattached males are approached in their hotel rooms or boarding houses.

History Of Prostitution in Canada

Prostitution in Canada started off as being legal because there were no laws prohibiting the exchange of sex for money.

Canada's first laws regarding prostitution were established in Nova Scotia in 1792.

On December 20th 2013 the supreme court of Canada found the laws prohibiting brothels, public communication for the purpose of prostitution and living on the profits of prostitution to be unconstitutional.

Selling sex was never illegal, but in December 2014 they established that you were not allowed to purchase it. Brothels were prohibited as well as living on the avails of prostitution and communicating in public with clients.
