Proposed Corporate/ Business Strategy

Corporate Strategy

Single Business/Concentration

In order to achieve the vision and followed accordingly the mission we used the Concentration strategies because we only focus in one market which is businesses that serve breads as their product line.

Business Strategy

Internal Growth Strategies

The Bakemaster Inc. will use only the market penetration and product development. We did not include the market development because we only concentrate on one market which those business that produce bread and pastries.

Market Penetration

The Bakemaster Inc. will focus on improving the advertising activities to increase the company's share on its chosen market segment. As part of advertising, the Bakemaster will create its very own Website. The website will show our available products, its prices, and other essential information to potential clients. Another tool we will use is the print ads. We will place it on magazines because it is usually distributed in companies for their employees.

Product Development

Using the product development strategy, Bakemaster intends to increase the sales by making a new product like new variety of breads and pastries that will trend in today's occurrence. Also by making new product lines, the company can have the edge to the other businesses to make them a client for the Bakemaster.

Competitive Strategies

The competitive advantage of the Bakemaster are their product line which they offer to the client like Artisan bread and European bread using this they will have the edge among their competitors, with the help of the technologies it reduces the cost of the Bakemaster with the same high quality they produce.

Promotional Strategies

Since the Bakemaster doesn't have any promotion efforts. The Bakemaster will make a website about their basic background of of business or nature of business, locations of the Bakemaster, contact and many more about the Bakemaster. The Bakemaster will also make some print ads in the magazine and The Bakemaster will call some businesses that their one of the product line is related to baking breads.
