PRAYER

TheCaseSolutions.com

In thankful for the promise of your presence for where we are gathered, we offer you this sincere prayer.

My God, enable us to trust in the productive outcome of this oral defense we are about to face, help us to contribute our own share of optimism, confidence and advancement of new knowledge in the field we wish to excel. Keep far from us at this moment any presumption that it all depends exclusively on us. Heavenly Father, who never fails in generosity, we take this opportunity to thank you for giving us an understanding and very open handed adviser, the readers in front of us, and the faculty, all of whom have prepared us for this significant event in our lives and for the challenges of a bright future. Shower us with your abundant blessings!

Lord our God, true source of light and wisdom, give us a keen sense of understanding a retentive memory, subtlety in interpreting and elegance in speech. Enlighten the beginning of this defense, guide its

Lord our God, true Source of light and wisdom, give us a keen sense of understanding a retentive memory, subtlety in interpreting and elegance in speech. Enlighten the beginning of this defense, guide its progress and bring it to fruition. Let this day be full of insights and inspiration as we share in the great task of humanizing the world with your Truth and Love.

AMEN.
