

The Virginia Carlton - Taylor Haydon

TheCaseSolutions.com

The Virginia Carlton - Taylor Haydon

TheCaseSolutions.com

Summary

The Virginia Colony was founded by the London company in 1607. They developed many plantations and concentrated on agriculture. The Virginia Colony gave way to religious freedom because they did not have a specific religion. Virginia Colony was a charter colony until 1624 when it became royal. Jamestown was founded from a desire to gain wealth and to convert the natives to Christianity.

ThecaseSolutions.com

The Founder

The Virginia Colony was founded by John Smith and John Rolfe backed by the London Company.

ThecaseSolutionsS.com

ThecaseSolutions.com

Economic Characteristics

-They concentrated on agriculture.

-They developed the plantations exporting tobacco, corn, vegetables, cotton, fruit, and livestock.

ThecaseSolutions.com

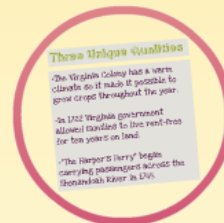

Economic Characteristics

-They concentrated on agriculture.

-They developed the plantations exporting tobacco, corn, vegetables, cotton, fruit, grain, and livestock.

TheCaseSolutions.com

Notes

Predominant Religion

TheCaseSolutions.com

The Virginia Colony does not have a specific religion which gave way to religious freedom for Baptists, Anglicans, etc.

TheCaseSolutions.com

Ideas

Ideas

Ideas

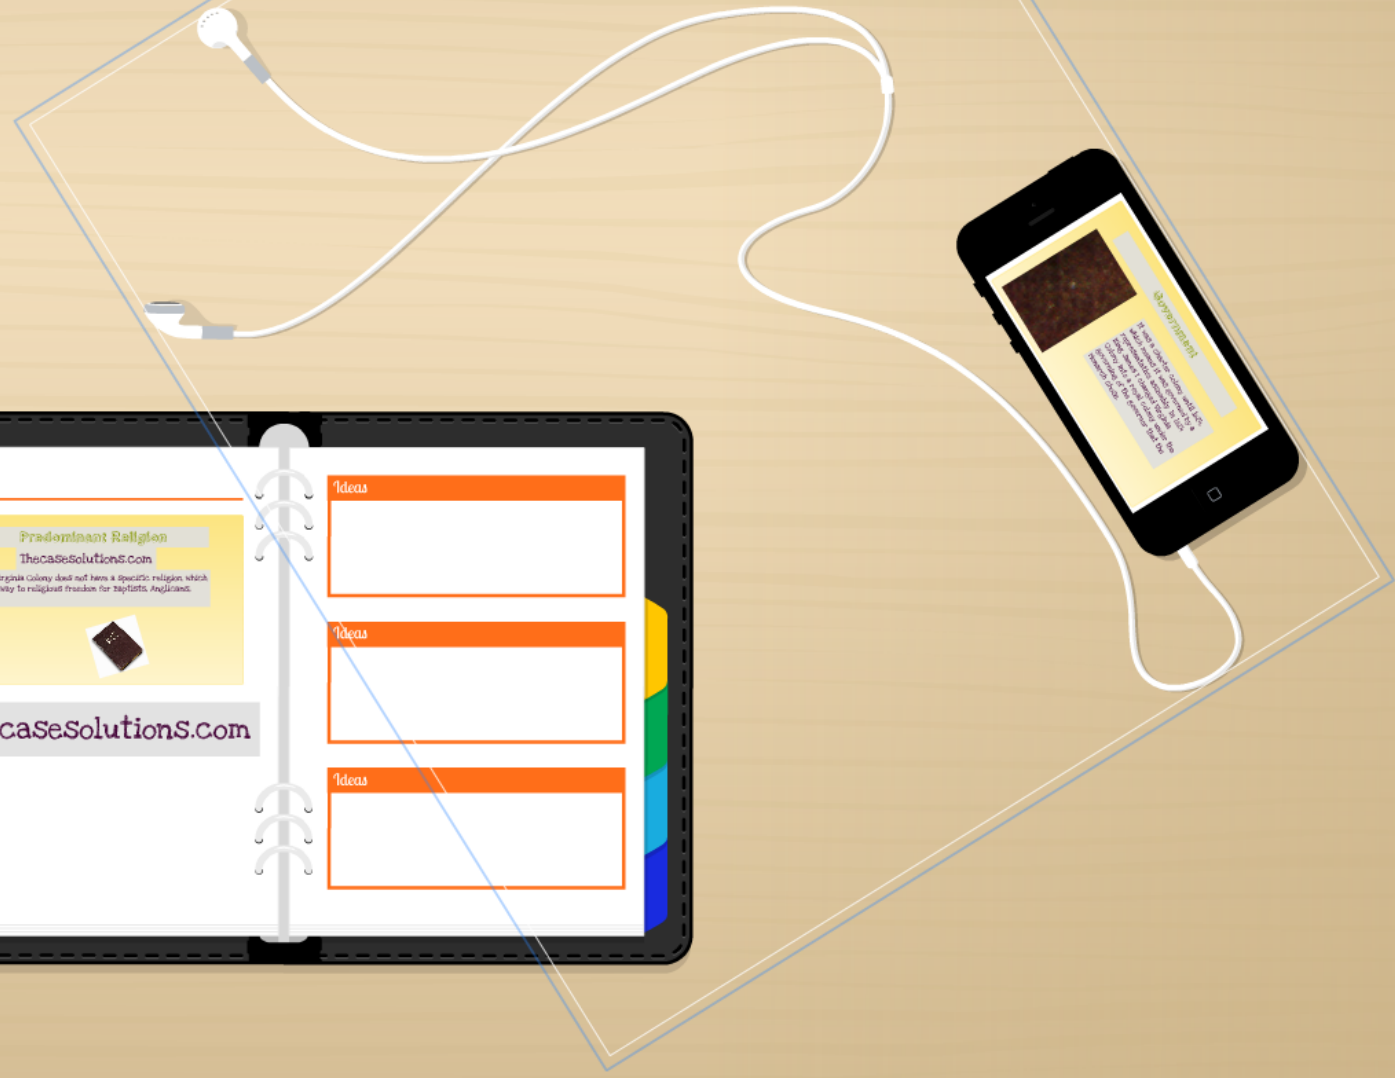

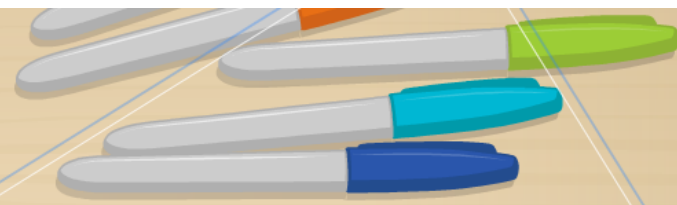

Predominant Religion

Thecasesolutions.com

The Virginia Colony does not have a specific religion which gave way to religious freedom for Baptists, Anglicans, etc.

-The Virginia Company became royal in 1624.

Notes

Predominant Religion
TheCaseSolutions.com

The Virginia Colony did not have a specific religion which gave way to religious freedom for Baptists, Anglicans, etc.

TheCaseSolutions.com

Ideas

Ideas

Ideas

