REST:

The vignette I chose was on pages 6-7. It described Sandra's family hair. In paragraph on, it states, "My papa's hair is like a broom, all up in the air. And me, my hair is lazy, it never obeys barrettes or bands. Carlos hair is thick and straight. However I can relate to Carlos hair because my hair is exactly like his. My hair root is dark brown and the ends are a light brown color. It is very thick and long, just how I like it and it only stays straight when I flat iron it. But I Like my hair how it is.

HOME

Now, I live with my Dad, his mom, and my cousins. But in Margate it was just My dad and I. Huge difference. What home mean to me is a safe secure feeling in your heart. A safe, a warm feeling, a happy feeling. Homes can be apartments, duplexes, mansions. But what home means to me is a place, a wonderful safe place that you can spend your life in. Inside my house is an black and white couch.

My House On 56

I live in an apartment that lies between the middle of two other apartments. We didn't always live on 56 ave, before we moved on 56, we lived at 7810 Margate Blvd. The apartment we live in now is five story tall, orange and brown, with a guard gate. I live in front of Endeavor Elementary School. We had to be careful not to make too much noise because the walls were as thin as paper.

ENTRANCE

When you enter, the first thing you see is my kitchen which leads to my living room. My living room is carpeted with a light brown rough rug. As you go further in and turn right, you see a big flat screen tv, a smooth brown carpet, and a king size bed. There are three bedrooms, one for my dad, one for my cousins and I, and one for my grandma. My apartment is very large to me and it's the funnest house on the fourth floor.

WHO AM I ?

Yes, my home does define who I am because my house is very fun and I am a fun person, my house is a chill spot for everyone and I am a chilled person. My home does not affect my identity in any way. It also does depict my culture because everyone in my house is Jamaican, we have and eat Jamaican food, and we also have a lot of Jamaican artifacts around the house.
