Mission Statement

Google's Mission Statement:
is "To organize the world's information and make it universally accessible and useful."

Our Revised Mission Statement:
"To bring innovative, breakthrough technology to our customers, employees, and environment with quality and assurance nationwide."

Our Mission statement encompasses what Google
has become where their original Mission statement is more of who they were when they first started out.

Vision Statement

Google's Vision Statement

Google does not have an original vision statement for their company but they do have a list of 10 statements that the company values.

Our Vision Statement

"At Google we push the envelope and find the newest way of the cyber speed of light to bring everyone around the world the best way to search into the future!"

Our Vision statement is improved because it tells exactly what Google is about and a look into the future.
