

Robert Burns (b.1759- d.1796)

- Born in Scotland in 1759, Burns grew up in a rural environment, he worked on farms doing hard labor as a young man. Burns began his poetry at a young age. His works dealt with rural life, patriotism, class structure and sexuality. At age 25, Burns fell in love with Jean Armour. In 1788 he and his family settled down and Burns earned a job as an excise man. Although his literary work kept gaining prominence and prestige Burns' health began to deteriorate, and on July 21, 1796 Burns died at the age of 37. Burns is known as a pioneer for the Romantic Movement and is regarded as the national poet of Scotland.

Lyric Poem Quatrain

Oh my luv's like a red, red rose A

That's newly sprung in June B

O my luv's like the melody C

That's sweetly played in tune! B

As fair art thou, my bonnie lass A

So deep in love am I: B

and I will love thee still, my dear, C

Till all the seas gang dry B

Till all the seas gang dry, my dear, A

And the rocks melt with the sun: B

I will luv thee still, my dear, A

While the sands o' life shall run. B

And fare the well, my only Luv, A

And fare the well a while! B

And I will come again, my luv, A

Tho' it were ten thousand mile B

Oh my luv's like a red, red rose
That's newly sprung in June
O my luv's like the melody
That's sweetly played in tune!
As fair art thou, my bonnie lass
So deep in love am I:
and I will love thee still, my dear,
Till all the seas gang dry
Till all the seas gang dry, my dear,
And the rocks melt with the sun;
I will luv thee still, my dear,
While the sands o' life shall run.
And fare the well, my only Luv,
And fare the well a while!
And I will come again, my luv,
Tho' it were ten thousand mile

Thecasesolutions.com
A Red Red Rose

Scottish Courage Limited (A): John Dunsmore's First Week

Thecasesolutions.com

Scottish Courage Limited (A): John Dunsmore's First Week

Thecasesolutions.com

A Red Red Rose

Thecasesolutions.com

Oh my luve is like a red, red rose
That's newly sprung in June
O my luve's like the melodie
That's sweetly played in tune!

As fair art thou, my bonnie lass
So deep in love am I:
and I will love thee still, my dear,
Till all the seas gang dry

Till all the seas gang dry, my dear,
And the rocks melt with the sun;
I will luve thee still, my dear,
While the sands o' life shall run.

And fare the well, my only Luve,
And fare the well a while!
And I will come again, my luve,
Tho' it were ten thousand mile

Title

Thecasesolutions.com

"A Red, Red Rose" is most likely about love because roses are related to love and respect. Many people write about their own past experiences in love using the rose and other objects that symbolize true love. Burns in his poem is inferring that his love is like a sweet smelling rose, and that it will endure to forever on end.

Title

Thecas

A major shift in tone
will love the still my
talks about how mu

Paraphrase

The author vividly explains how his love for this women will always continue, whatever the condition may be. Even if he must travel ten thousand miles to see her he will still always love her with all of his heart.

Thecasesolutions.com

reads the romance.

Thecasesolutions.com

Connotation

In the beginning of "A Red, Red Rose", Burns displays his ideal sense of love through the use of a red red rose." A red, red rose" (Burns Line 1) symbolizes love, passion, desire, and respect. The poem is written in first person to let the readers know that it is the author's experience. Burns uses "a red, red rose" (Burns Line 1) and "the melody" (Burns Line 3) as a symbol for his love. In the end, "Though it were ten thousand mile" (Burns Line 16) is a hyperbole that Burns writes to express his devoted love.

"A Red, Red Rose" is primarily about the love between him and his wife. The red rose symbolizes the true

the m
c

Attitude

Thecasesolutions.com

The tone at the beginning of the poem is reflective. Burns affections help express the overall tone of the poem which is true love and affection. "And I will love thee still my dear, while the sands o' life shall run." (Burns Line 11-12)

Title
The title "A Red, Red Rose" is a direct address to the reader directly +

love that Burns

...st person to let the readers
...e, passion, desire. "A red,
... (Burns Line 3) as a
... at Burns writes to

Shifts

Thecasesolutions.com

A major shift in tone occurs in line six of the poem. "So deep in love am I/And I will love thee still my dear till a the seas gang dry." (Burns Lines 6-8) The author talks about how much he loves his lass, then in lines eight through nine Burns explains how his love will endure forever. The purpose of this shift in the poem is to overly exaggerate his love for his lass and to express his feelings more clearly.

phrases
ns how his love for this

Title(2)

The title "A Red, Red Rose" by Robert burns leads the reader directly to the thought of true love and romance.

Thecasesolutions.com