

Skandia: "Castles Built on Sand"

Thecasesolutions.com

Skandia: "Castles Built on Sand"

Thecasesolutions.com

Question #1

Thecasesolutions.com

At the end of each verse, there's a sentence that repeats over and over, except for three words. Fall, melts, and slips. What do you think that these three key words imply about the three verses?

Question #2

Thecasesolutions.com

.What are your interpretations about the three verses? carefully observe each verse.

Question #3

Thecasesolutions.com

What did Hendrix mean at the end of each verse by ending with "Castles Made of Sand?"

carefully on

Question #3

Thecasesolutions.com

What did Hendrix mean at the end of each verse by ending with "Castles Made of Sand?"

Answer to question #1

Thecasesolutions.com

"Fall" in the first verse implies about a love that is gone. "Melts" in the second verse is about a dream that cannot be obtained, and "Slips" in the third verse is about a life that is no more.

*Answer to question
#2*

Thecasesolutions.com

Each verse implies a significance in Hendrix's life growing up. The first verse is about his parent's marriage coming to an end. The second verse implies when he was a child, he used to play Cowboys and Indians with his younger brother Leon. Leon was the little Indian brave. He also speaks about his Native American Heritage, The third verse is about his mother's death due to liver disease. She had cirrhosis.

Answer to question #3

Thecasesolutions.com

. The lyrics "castles made of sand, eventually" infers to his life he had as a child, experiencing many cruelties. Which in any case would signify why he used "Sand Castles" as a metaphor, resembling his childhood fading away.

Extras

Thecasesolutions.com