An aerial photograph of a city with numerous skyscrapers and a central road. A helicopter is visible in the sky, and several birds are flying. The scene is bathed in a warm, golden light, suggesting sunrise or sunset. A semi-transparent white box is overlaid on the top half of the image, containing the main title.

I'm Julian Jutz, future pilot.

Flying airplanes is what I like to do best.

Other things I enjoy include cooking, camping, climbing and spending time with friends. I am continuing to take flying lessons and will be ready to take my solo flight soon.

This summer I spent two weeks traveling in Germany with my dad and meeting my cousins.

I recently earned the BSA Eagle Rank.
