

Washout: The Founders' Tale and Investors' Tale

TheCaseSolutions.com

3 Climax

The turning point of the action in the story. It is the most exciting part of the story.

4 Falling Action

The event(s) following the climax of the work that moves it towards its denouement or resolution.

2 Rising Action

A series of incidents beginning with the conflict that create suspense, interest, and tension in a story.

TheCaseSolutions.com

5 Resolution

The sorting out or unraveling of a plot at the end of a story; the conclusion of the story.

References

Washout: The Founders' Tale and Investors' Tale

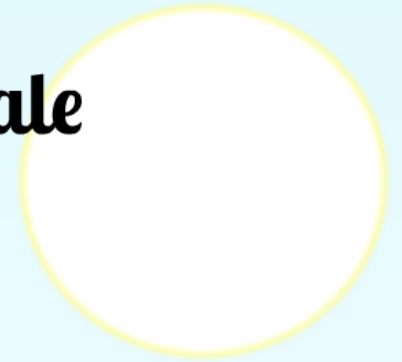

TheCaseSolutions.com

1 Exposition

The beginning of a story that gives important background information including the characters and setting.

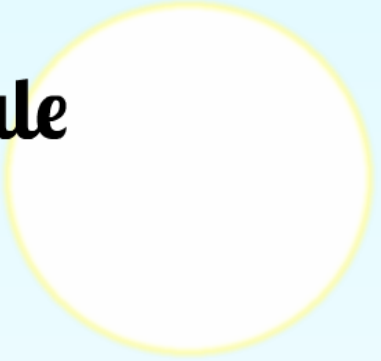

TheCaseSolutions.com

Washout: The Founders' Tale and Investors' Tale

TheCaseSolutions.com

3 Climax

The turning point of the action in the story. It is the most exciting part of the story.

4 Falling Action

The event(s) following the climax of the work that moves it towards its denouement or resolution.

TheCaseSolutions.com

2 Rising Action

A series of incidents beginning with the conflict that create suspense, interest, and tension in a story.

TheCaseSolutions.com

5 Resolution

The sorting out or unraveling of a plot at the end of a story; the conclusion of the story.

1 Exposition

The beginning of a story that gives important background information including the characters and setting.

TheCaseSolutions.com

NOW, IT'S YOUR TURN!

1

Exposition

The beginning of a story that gives important background information including the characters and setting.

TheCaseSolutions.com

Snow White was orphaned at a young age because her stepmother murdered her father. Her stepmother is a vain woman that worships a mirror.

TheCaseSolutions.com

2 Rising Action

A series of incidents beginning with the conflict that create suspense, interest, and tension in a story.

TheCaseSolutions.com

The mirror tells the queen that she is no longer the 'fairest of them all' because Snow White has become of age to claim that title. The queen sends a huntsman to kill her. The huntsman does not kill her, instead he protects her.

TheCaseSolutions.com

The mirror tells the queen that she is no longer the "fairest of them all" because Snow White has become of age to claim that title. The queen sends a huntsman to kill her. The huntsman does not kill her, instead he protects her.

3

Climax

The turning point of the action in the story. It is the most exciting part of the story.

The queen has failed in attempting to kill Snow White several times. She takes matters into her own hands and poisons her with a deadly apple. Shortly after her "funeral," she is awakened by a kiss from the huntsman. She then forms an army to rebel against her stepmother.

TheCaseSolutions.com

TheCaseSolutions.com

The queen has failed in attempting to kill Snow White several times. She takes matters into her own hands and poisons her with a deadly apple. Shortly after her "funeral," she is awakened by a kiss from the huntsman. She then forms an army to rebel against her stepmother.

TheCaseSolutions.com

4

Falling Action

The event(s) following the climax of the work that moves it towards its denouement or resolution.

TheCaseSolutions.com

