There are many kind of leader,
Some are better and some are not so good,
But all are trying to make a better world,
And all are trying to make a better world,
Some are better and some are not so good,
But all are trying to make a better world,
And all are trying to make a better world,

Poem

*There are many kind of leader.
Some are found our life and other can find in nature.
Such as a pack of wolf follow it leader during hunting.
We do the same, but often find it boring.
Because in business we call them boss.
But unlike animal, we hate them and want them to get loss.
Because many of these leader can be a real pain.
Sometime causing us to go insane.
While this is sad and is the Reality.
Remember, there are many type of leader out there, figuratively.*
