

Sandcore Instruments (A)

What to know about keyboard instruments.....

Thecasesolutions.com

- These instruments are played with the hands and can produce many notes at on time.
- They function well as both solo and accompaniment instruments, because can play both melodies and chords

Keyboard Instruments used before the 1750's

Thecasesolutions.com

Clavier Family- the strings were plucked

- Harpsichord
- Virginal

Clavier family

Thecasesolutions.com

Clavichord- a small and very soft keyboard instrument that had metal tangents to strike the strings.

Clavier Family

Thecasesolutions.com

Witch Clavier- strings were sounded by a wooden wheel that the player rotated with one hand while playing the keyboard with the other.

It also had the same strings that played when the keyboard gave it accompaniment.

Thecasesolutions.com

Sandcore Instruments (A)

What to know about keyboard instruments.....

Thecasesolutions.com

- These instruments are played with the hands and can produce many notes at on time.
- They function well as both solo and accompaniment instruments, because can play both melodies and chords

Keyboard Instruments used before the 1750's

Thecasesolutions.com

Clavier Family - the strings were plucked.

- Harpsichord
- Virginal

Clavier family

Thecasesolutions.com

Clavichord - small and very soft keyboard instrument that had metal tangents to vibrate the strings.

Clavier Family

Thecasesolutions.com

Hammond Clavichord - strings were bowed by a wooden wheel that the player pushed with one hand and the playing the keyboard with the other.

It also had the drone strings that played without the keyboard, giving it a unique sound.

Thecasesolutions.com

Derek Paravicini

Thecasesolutions.com

What to know about keyboard
instruments.....

Thecasesolutions.com

- These instruments are played with the hands and can produce many notes at on time.
- They function well as both solo and accompaniment instruments, because can play both melodies and chords

Keyboard
Instruments used before the 1750's

Thecasesolutions.com

Clavier Family- the strings were plucked.

-Harpichord

-Virginal

Clavier family

Thecasesolutions.com

Clavichord- a small and very soft keyboard instrument that had metal tangents to strike the strings.

Thecasesolutions.com

Keyboard with pipes fall into the general category of organs.

Organs- bellows to push air through the pipes in much the same way that wind

Clavier Family

Thecasesolutions.com

Hurdy-Gurdy- strings were bowed by a wooden wheel that the player cranked with one hand while playing the keyboard with the other.

It also had the drone strings that played without the keyboard, giving it a bagpipe sound.

Organs vary in size

thecasesolutions.com

Large organs are found in churches and often consist of sets of pipes.

They vary in sound

Thecasesolutions.com

Keyboard with pipes fall into the general category of organs.

Organs- bellows to push air through the pipes in much the same way that wind players blew into their flute, oboes, or other instruments to allow them to make sound.

Piano
a keyboard instrument developed during the mid eighteenth century. Hammers hit the strings when the keys are played. The hammer aids in the varying dynamics

Organs vary in size

Thecasesolutions.com

-
- Large organs are found in churches and often have sets of pipes.

They vary in sound