

Savage Beast (A1)

Thecasesolutions.com

Savage Beast (A1)

Thecasesolutions.com

Plot summary

Thecasesolutions.com

A Human-like creature fell from the sky, and only its hunger and pain would bring it to the farmer's door for help. Humans studied it as an animal resulting in the creature feeling depressed that the humans couldn't accept anything else was out there with a higher intelligence.

The Beast

Thecasesolutions.com

The Beast is a humanoid monkey type of creature that fell from the sky. It is hurt and the farmers would help it get better. When it's well people examine it and the creature tries to explain the "master plan of the universe". The creature is dismissed as an animal resulting in the creature going into the woods with depression trying to live among the other animals.

The Farmer and His wife

Thecasesolutions.com

The Farmer and his wife are the ones who originally help the creature. They take care of it until it's well. The farmers wife would get attached to the creature while the farmer is kind to it though is not attached. The farmer and his wife are both caring for the creature before it goes to the learneds.

The Mathematicians/
Professors

Thecasesolutions.com

They judge the creature testing its knowledge of simple mathematics, in awe that it can add  $2 + 2$ . They expect nothing from it for to them it only knows "parrot talk" so when the creature proves to know something they become mad and uninterested.

The Priests

Thecasesolutions.com

The priests have their strong religious beliefs so when they come to see the creature they're yelling and arguing over ideas. When the creature yells for them stop, they become angry because it's just an animal to them, it has no right in their eyes to say religion was nothing important and continue to talk about the "master Plan.."

The Ringmaster

Thecasesolutions.com

The Ringmaster comes to take the creature from city menagerie to the circus. He is kind though he shows his animals he is the master making them jump through his hoops. Still like everyone else, he treats the humanoid creature as an animal of no intelligence.

Elders

Thecasesolutions.com

At first they were puzzled, and amused, interested at first. Soon the Elders grew to hate the creature, they disliked the imitating and the parrot-talk. They ordered it to walk properly, on all fours like any other animal. The elders were annoyed that this creature came and thought it had any kind of knowledge, that it was just like human but with more intelligence. They weren't able to handle how they could have been wrong their whole life about religion and a chance for the afterlife. Completely different ideas coming from a monkey like creature.