History

Thecasesolutions.com

- Napster, a music sharing website, introduced and made popular peer-to-peer file sharing. Only mp3 encoded files were shared through a centralized server that would connect computers looking for specific files, and link them to those that have the file.
- It quickly became one of the most popular music sharing websites.
- Shut down in 2001 for copyright infringement.

Fun Fact

Thecasesolutions.com

- Sean Parker, the co-founder of Napster was also the first president of Facebook.

History - Bittorrent

Thecasesolutions.com

- Created in 2001
- Bittorrent relied on decentralized networks.
- Breaking files into multiple packages – or chunks – and downloading multiple parts of a file, which then eventually combines into one singular file.
- Easy and faster, using metadata-based file called ".torrent".
- Various files types could be downloaded including movies, games, tv shows, and music.

Thecasesolutions.com
• File hosting websites became wide-spread.
• Copyrighted content
• Millions of users started finding websites like
Bunkie, Isohunt, and most prominently ThePirateBay, which offered large catalogues and collection of files. They were the go-to place for modern-day pirates.
• Pirate Bay and Kat eventually shutdown by US Gov.
