Supply Chain Partners: Virginia Mason and Owens & Minor (A)

I thought this was a good topic because, of how the African Americans were treated and how the law changed how they were treated and how it effected the African American.

Thecasesolutions.com

*Southern Democrats regularly blocked the effects of a few liberal congressmen protective Legislation for blacks.

Thecasesolutions.com.

Thecasesolutions.com

Thecasesolutions.com

Why do you think this is a good topic?

What happen because of it? What new direction did the nation move?

There are a few things that happen because of the Jim Crow laws one of the things is their we new laws made to help the African Americans feel more free, and also that the African Americans and whites were separate but treated equality. The new direction the nation moved, was in a bad direction because the African Americans were not treated as nice as a white man and did not get paid as much as the white people did. I think this a good topic because it is about how African Americans were treated wrong and how some African Americans changed small white person because skin color does not matte

The cases olutions.com

TIME LINE

A Virginia law made it illegal for black and white children to attend the same schools.

Congress passed the Civil Rights Act of 1875, which prohibited discrimination in public accommodations, including inns, theaters, public conveyances on land or water, and other places of public amusement."

Republican Rutherford B. Hayes was elected President by the Electoral College after a deal was worked out with leading southern Democrats. The withdrawal of all remaining federal troops from the South marked the effective end of Reconstruction.

In 1882, at least 49 blacks were lynched. According to Tuskegee Institute data, 3,438 blacks were lynched between the years 1882 and 1951.

The United States Supreme Court ruled in Civil Rights Cases of 1883 that the Civil Rights Act of 1875 was unconstitutional. The Court ruled that the 14th Amendment prohibited states, but not citizens, from discriminating. This civil rights reversal was dewastating for African Americans.

Southern states adopted new constitutions and voting laws designed to disenfranchise black voters.

lda B. Wells began writing articles and campaigning against lynching. At least 161 blacks were lynched in 1892, probably the highest number in a single year.

The Souls of Black Folk by W.E.B. Du Bois was published. According to Manning Marable, author of a biography of Du Bois, The Souls of Black Folk "helped to create the intellectual argument for the black freedom struggle in the twentieth century."

1909 May 31- June 1
The National Negro Conference met in New York City and founded the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP).

Woodrow Wilson institutionalized segregation in the federal civil service. By the end of World War I, the District of Columbia was thoroughly segregated as well.

Every southern state and many northern cities had Jim Crow laws that iscriminated against black Americans.

In the Great Migration, rural southern blacks moved to northern cities, 1952 to the West, and to southern cities. Between 1915 and 1920, 500,000 to 1 million moved to the North, another 700,000 to 1 million moved to the North, another 700,000 to 1 million moved to the North and West in the 1920s.

At least forty blacks were attacked and killed during a race riot in East St. Louis, Illinois. Three weeks later, some 10,000 blacks participated in The a silent manch down Fifth Avenue in New York City to protest racial oppression, especially riots directed against black communities.

1919
Many whites, resentful of black demands for equality, attacked blacks.
Chicago, Houston, Little Rock, Harlem, Washington D.C., New York,
Baltimore, New Orleans, and many other cities had outbreaks of rioting as whites attacked blacks throughout the United States. This period is 19th Amendment to the United States Constitution was ratified, ng women the right to vote.

Malcolm X became a minister in the Nation of Islam

The Maryland legislature passed a law that imprisoned any white woman who birthed a mixed-race child. The white woman would be incarcerated up to five years. The law was renewed in 1957.

1958 The Virginia legislature voted to close any school that enrolled both black and

An Arkansas law required all state buses to designate whites-only seating areas

websites used

Supply Chain Partners: Virginia Mason and Owens & Minor (A)

I thought this was a good topic because, of how the African Americans were treated and how the law changed how they were treated and how it effected the African American.

Thecasesolutions.com

*Jim Crow was a system of segregation and discrimination practiced in the southern and some border states soon after the Child was.

The Legislative was most effect in enacting and maintaining discriminatory the keep the Jim Corol loads allow well into the 1550s.

Thecasesolutions.com

Thecasesolutions.com

Thecasesolutions.com

Rosa Park

What happen because of it?

What new direction did the nation move?

Why do you think this is a good topic?

There are a few things that happen because of the Jim Crow laws one of the things is their we new laws made to help the African Americans feel more free, and also that the African Americans and whites were separate but treated equality. The new direction the nation moved, was in a bad direction because the African Americans were not treated as nice as a white man and did not get paid as because it is about how African Americans were treated wrong and how some African Americans changed small things to help them feel more free and not feel less then a white person because skin color does not matty

Thecasesolutions.com

A Virginia law made it illegal for black and white children to attend the same schools.

Congress passed the Civil Rights Act of 1875, which prohibited discrimination in public accommodations, including inns, theaters, public conveyances on land or water, and other places of public amusement."

Republican Rutherford B. Hayes was elected President by the Electoral College after a deal was worked out with leading southern Democrats. The withdrawal of all remaining federal troops from the South marked the effective end of Reconstruction.

In 1882, at least 49 blacks were lynched. According to Tuskegee Institute data, 3,438 blacks were lynched between the years 1882 and 1951.

JBBS UCTORET 18
The United States Supreme Court ruled in Civil Rights Cases of 1883 that the Civil Rights Act of 1875 was unconstitutional. The Court ruled that the 14th Amendment prohibited states, but not citizens, from discriminating. This civil rights reversal was devastating for African Americans.

Southern states adopted new constitutions and voting laws designed to disenfranchise black voters.

1032 Ida B. Wells began writing articles and campaigning against lynching. At least 161 blacks were lynched in 1892, probably the highest number in a single year.

1903
The Souls of Black Folk by W.E.B. Du Bois was published. According to Manning Manable, author of a biography of Du Bois, The Souls of Black Folk "helped to create the intellectual argument for the black freedom strategies," in the treatest in the treatest in the strategies.

1909 May 31- June 1
The National Negro Conference met in New York City and founded the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP).

Woodrow Wilson institutionalized segregation in the federal civil service By the end of World War I, the District of Columbia was thoroughly segregated as well,

Every southern state and many northern cities had Jim Crow laws that discriminated against black Americans.

1934
Marcus Garvey established the United Negro Improvement Association
(UNIA) in Jamaics, which promoted black nutronation and pan-Africanism.
Later in the decade, Garvey moved his headquasters to New York City and the URIA became a large grassroots movement.

1315-1320
A the Great Migration, rural southern blacks moved to northern cities, to the West, and to southern cities. Between 1915 and 1920, 500,000 to 1 million moved to the North; another 700,000 to 1 million moved to the North and West in the 1920s.

The United States entered World War I. Approximately 370,000 blacks saw service during the conflict, including about 1,400 officers. Three black regiments received the Croix de Guerre for valor.

1920 August 18
The 19th Amendment to the United States Constitution was ratified, giving women the right to vote.

Ku Kluc Klarn had 3 million members during its heyday in the early 1800s. Broughly hall its bees lived in metropolitan revex, and although it enjoyed considerable support in the South lan was alrongest in the Midmest and Southwest. On August 8, 1822, 35,000 nembers of the

The Tuskegee Institute reported that 1952 was the first year with no reported lynchings since it began keeping records.

Malcolm X became a minister in the Nation of Islam.

The Maryland legislature passed a law that imprisoned any white woman who birthed a mixed-race child. The white woman would be incarcerated up to five years. The law was renewed in 1957.

The Virginia legislature voted to close any school that enrolled both black and 1959

An Arkansas law required all state buses to designate whites-only seating areas.

websites used

I thought this was a good topic because, of how the African Americans were treated and how the law changed how they were treated and how it effected the African American.

Thecasesolutions.com

*TI in dis *Jim Crow was a system of segregation and discrimination practiced in the southern and some border states soon after the Civil war.

*The Legislative was most effective in enacting and maintaining discriminatory the kept the Jim Crow laws alive well into the 1960s

> *Southern Democrats regularly blocked the effects of a few liberal congressmen protective Legislation for blacks.

Thecasesolutions.com

Through the 1930s, Legislative dominance by southern Democrats was buoyed by strong party allegiance in the south and the weak northern Democratic party. Legislators were more concerned with the passing relief bills for a economically depressed constituency then with helping blacks regain suffrage in the south.

Thecasesolutions.com

The term Jim Crow originally refereed to a black character in an old song, and and was a name of a popular in the 1820s. Around 1828 Thomas Rice developed a routine in which he colored his face black in imitation of an old and decrepit black man. Rice published the words of the song "Jump, Jim Crow" in 1830.

Thecasesolutions.com

Jim Crow represented the Legitimization of anti-black racism. Many christian ministers and theologians taught that whites were the chosen people and blacks were cursed to be servants, and God supported racial segregation.

Thecasesolutions.com

did not use sy titles of at when ng to blacks foe The

Thecasesolutions.com

A black man could not shake hands with a white male because it implied being socially equal. Obviously a black male could not offer his hand or any other part of his body to a white women because he risked being accused of rap

Thecasesolutions.com

Blacks and whites were not supposed to eat together. If they did eat together, whites were to be served first, and some sort of partition was to be placed between them.