

Vision Mumbai

TheCaseSolutions.com

5. sources

TheCaseSolutions.com

Vision Mumbai

TheCaseSolutions.com

5. sources

TheCaseSolutions.com

structure

1. introduction
2. general facts
3. city of contrast- dual societies
  - 3.1 reasons
  - 3.2 consequences
4. Mumbai or Slumbai?
  - 4.1 problems
  - 4.2 stay sustainable
  - 4.3 future of Mumbai
  - 4.2 solutions
5. sources

TheCaseSolutions.com

I. introduction

If you want to catch a glimpse of the new India, with all its dizzying promise and turbocharged ambition, then head to its biggest, messiest, sexiest city - Mumbai.

Time magazine, 2006

TheCaseSolutions.com

2. general facts

- lively, busy and cosmopolitan city
- centre of economy and culture, traffic junction
- home of Bollywood and film industries
- inhabitants: 12.5 million
- area: 603 km<sup>2</sup>
- "Mumbai Metropolitan Region"

TheCaseSolutions.com

3.2 consequences

- rural- urban migration
- backgroundfactors
e.g. cities become global centres
- role of pull- and push-factors

- better quality of life
- better paid jobs

- rural poverty
- lack of services

4.2 stay sustainable

TheCaseSolutions.com

- live in knit- communities
- most work is illegal and informal
- Dharavi supports itself by:
  - recycling
  - clothing
  - pottery

4.4 solutions

→ VISION MUMBAI

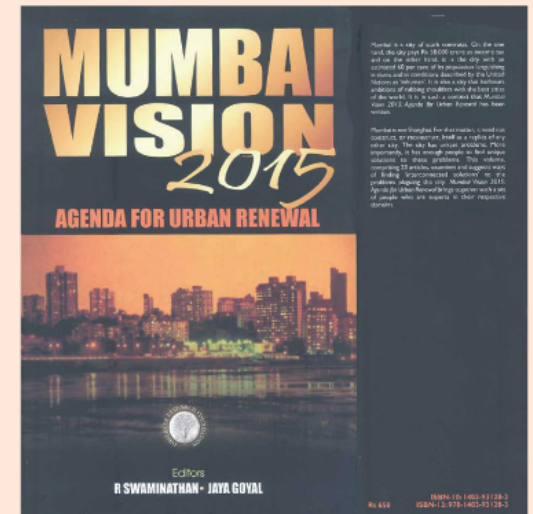

- based on 6 core targets
- based on quick wins

→ future

- creating a big job diversity in different branches
- consumer city - "new city that never sleeps"
- future of India depends on Mumbai

→ now

- vision Mumbai in balance

5. sources

TheCaseSolutions.com

