

Nordic Telephone Company's Bid for TDC

TheCaseSolutions.com

What if...

every teacher received new things to try that they did in their classrooms in a school hallway, and they had five minutes that all they had to read each other's tweets?

What impact would that have on learning and school culture?

And most of our parents do too...

TheCaseSolutions.com

Send Me to Sit Ahead!

TheCaseSolutions.com

What's the point?

TheCaseSolutions.com

Step 1: Create your Twitter "handle"

It's just a name that you use to identify yourself on Twitter. You can use your name, a nickname, or anything you like. It should be easy to remember.

TheCaseSolutions.com

How can it be used in schools?

It's a great way to connect with other teachers and share ideas. You can also use it to find resources and get help with your students.

TheCaseSolutions.com

The Twitter "handle" is just a name that you use to identify yourself on Twitter. You can use your name, a nickname, or anything you like. It should be easy to remember.

How to use Twitter in your classroom

1. Create a Twitter account for your classroom.

2. Follow other teachers and organizations in your field.

3. Tweet about your lessons and activities.

4. Retweet interesting tweets from other users.

5. Use Twitter to find resources and get help with your students.

Participate in Twitter chats

Twitter chats are a great way to connect with other teachers and share ideas. You can find out about them on the Twitter website or by following other users who participate in chats.

Let's Get Started!

Nordic Telephone Company's Bid for TDC

TheCaseSolutions.com

What if...

...every teacher tweeted one thing a day that they did in their classroom to a school hashtag, and they took five minutes out of their day to read each other's tweets?

What impact would that have on learning and school culture?

TheCaseSolutions.com

And most of our parents do too...

TheCaseSolutions.com

Social Media is All Around Us

TheCaseSolutions.com

What's the point?

TheCaseSolutions.com

Step 1: Create your Twitter "handle"

This is the name by which you will be recognized on Twitter. For instance my Twitter handle is @mspatcarrillo. All Twitter handles are preceded by the "@" sign.

TheCaseSolutions.com

How can it be used in schools?

Showcase what you're doing!

TheCaseSolutions.com

These guidelines are intended to help you create a safe and secure environment for your students.

This is an APS initiative. Throughout this school year, Twitter has taken the county by storm!

What if...

...every teacher tweeted one thing a day that they did in their classroom to a school hashtag, and they took five minutes out of their day to read each other's tweets?

What impact would that have on learning and school culture?
TheCaseSolutions.com

What's the point? TheCaseSolutions.com

Social Media is All Around Us

WWW

in

Case in point...

f

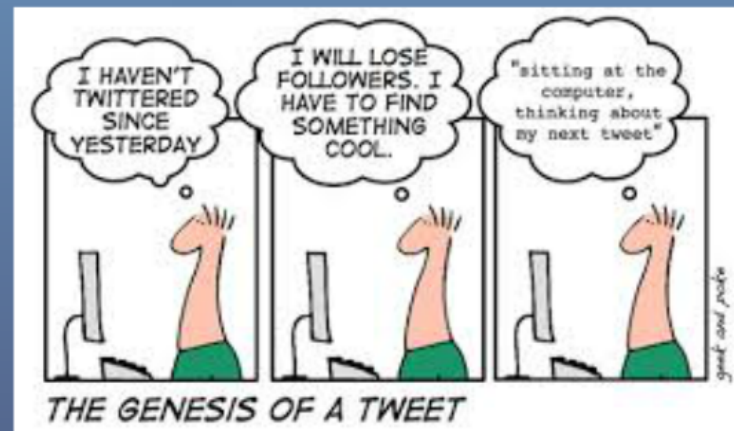

TheCaseSolutions.com

Our kids understand it...

And most of our parents do too...

TheCaseSolutions.com

pocket via mobile devices is to have an immensely unfair advantage over humans who think alone." Kevin Honeycutt

How can it be used to in schools?

Showcase what you're doing!

Tweet student work!

Tell others what you're up to!

- Tweet @ other APS schools, teachers, administrators, or even those at central office!
- Showcase classroom activities!
- Take pictures on your phone and tweet them right away!
- Share interesting news articles
- Tweet reminders about school events, classroom activities, or field trips!

TheCaseSolutions.com

? But ho?
?
?

Step 1: Create your Twitter "handle"

This is the name by which you will be recognized on Twitter. For instance, my Twitter handle is @mspaticianhfb. All Twitter handles are preceded by the "@" sign

TheCaseSolutions.com

Once you have an account,
you're ready to Tweet!

#HFBTweets!

TheCaseSolutions.com