Case Summary

TheCasesolutions.com

- Ziqitza Health Care Limited (ZHL) is an Emergency Medical Services company founded by five social entrepreneurs in India in 2002, which by 2012 operated 860 ambulances across five states.
- The story is told from the point of view of CEO and co-founder Sweta Mangal, who must decide how to respond to a government official who demands that ZHL bribe him to release payment for ambulance services it has rendered.
- She is confronted by a new employee, arguing that the bribe is necessary to make payroll and maintain its ambulances.
