

USA VS SPAIN

Thecasesolutions.com

Spain: Can the House Resist the Storm?

Thecasesolutions.com

solutions.com
ates Facts Culture

of more than 320 million the 3rd largest countries in the ny different cultures in America
ed a "Melting Pot."
U.S. was mostly inspired by the Native Americans, a popular y people know is "As American of the main things that grocery America during one of its biggest of July.

SPAIN

Location: is located in the continent of Europe.

Capital: Madrid

Currency: Euro

Language: Spanish

Spain shares land borders with 5 countries: Morocco, Gibraltar, Andorra, France, Portugal.

Borders: By Mediterranean Sea and Atlantic Ocean

Thecasesolutions.com

Thecasesolutions.com

- Tipping is not common in Spain, especially for cheap dinners.
- Spain's national sport is fútbol, or soccer.
- Has many festivals, and one of the most famous is the Running of Bulls.
- has some of the largest gold deposits in Europe.
- has a very low divorce rate, and few children are born outside of marriage.

Thecasesolutions.com

UNITED STATES

Location: is located in the continent of North America.

Capital: Washington D.C.

Currency: US Dollar

Language: English

United States of America shares land borders with 3 countries: Cuba, Canada, Mexico.

Thecasesolutions.com

United States Facts and Culture

- With a population of more than 320 million the U.S. is one of the 3rd largest countries in the world
- There are so many different cultures in America that it is considered a "Melting Pot."
- The food in the U.S. was mostly inspired by the Europeans and Native Americans, a popular phrase that many people know is "As American as Apple Pie"
- Apple Pie is one of the main things that grocery stores market in America during one of its biggest holidays The 4th of July.

More American Facts

Thecasesolutions.com

- The 4th of July is a holiday only celebrated in America which celebrates their independence from Britain
- One-third of the worldwide media and entertainment industry is comprised by the U.S.
- Music in America is very diverse from Rythm and Blues to Rock and Roll