What is the Trans-Pacific Partnership? The Trans-Pacific Partnership is one of the world's biggest multinational trade deals among 12 pacific rim countries that represent almost 40% of the world's economy.

It was signed on February 4th 2016 in Auckland, New Zealand after 7 years of negotiations, but has not been ratified.

In Support of the TPP

"The TPP writes the rules for global trade -- rules that will help increase Made-in-America exports, grow the American economy, support well-paying American jobs, and strengthen the American middle class." - Office of the US Trade Representative

"The Trans-Pacific Partnership ultimately represents a giant vote of confidence in an optimism for the future prosperity of our economy and our people. Today is a very, very important day for the 12 countries involved in the Trans-Pacific Partnership. - Prime Minister John Key
