

Buffet's Bid for Media General's Newspapers

The SmokinSouth

Paris Penn, No. 1

$1.25

Getting To Know The South

What states were involved with the south?

Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana, Alabama, Mississippi, Georgia, Florida, Tennessee, Kentucky, South Carolina, North Carolina.

General Robert E. Lee

January 19, 1807- October 12, 1870

General Robert E. Lee was born January 19, 1807 in Stratford Hall, VA and died October 12, 1870 in Lexington, Virginia. He was also the son-in-law of the Confederate General Thomas "Stonewall" Jackson. Before Lee became the general for the Confederate States, he also served in the army. Robert E. Lee had 8 children and a wife named Mary Anna Custis Lee.

Confederate Flag

The education of a man is never completed until he dies-Rober E. Lee

The Battle of Chickamauga

War: Confederate

The battle of Chickamauga lasted three days and was the second bloodiest battle of the Civil War. These days were September 18, 19, and 20, 1862. This was a battle against the army and the confederates (south and the north). The battle of Chickamauga was the largest battle fought in Georgia. Overall, 24,000 soldiers were killed. The Confederates in the battle were Braxton Bragg and William Johnston. The battle of Chickamauga was a victory for the confederates.

Facts about the civil war

1. The battle of Gettysburg happened September 17, 1862 and was the bloodiest day in the Civil War.
2. During Sherman's march to the sea, he destroyed everything in his path from Atlanta to Savannah.
3. Andersonville prison captured Union soldiers.
4. The Union blockade of Cuba Coast was also named "the anaconda plan".
5. The first battle of the war was fought at Fort Sumter.
6. The president of the confederate states was Jefferson Davis.
7. General Robert E. Lee surrendered to General Ulysses S. Grant April 9, 1865, this was the end of the civil war.
8. The civil war began on April 22, 1861.
9. The President of the United States during the civil war period was Abraham Lincoln.

TheCaseSolutions.com

Buffet's Bid for Media General's Newspapers

The SmokinSouth

Paris Penn, No. 1

$1.25

Getting To Know The South

What states were involved with the south?

Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana, Alabama, Mississippi, Georgia, Florida, Tennessee, Kentucky, South Carolina, North Carolina.

General Robert E. Lee

January 19, 1807- October 12, 1870

General Robert E. Lee was born January 19, 1807 in Stratford Hall, VA and died October 12, 1870 in Lexington, Virginia, VA. Lee was also the commander of the Confederate Ground troops. Before Lee became the general for the confederate states, he did serve in the military Robert E. Lee had 5 children and a wife named Mary Anne Custis Lee.

Confederate Flag

The education of a man is never completed until he dies-Rober E. Lee

The Battle of Chickamauga

War of Secession

The battle of Chickamauga lasted three days and was the second bloodiest battle of the Civil War. These days were September 18, 19th through September 20, 1863. This was a battle against the union and the confederate south and the north. The battle of Chickamauga was the largest battle fought in Georgia. Overall, 25,000 soldiers were killed. The Confederates of the battle were Braxton Bragg and William Johnston. The battle of Chickamauga was a victory for the confederates.

Facts about the civil war

1. The battle of Antietam happened September 17, 1862 and was the bloodiest 1 day battle of the civil war.
2. During Sherman's march to the sea, he destroyed everything in his path from Atlanta to Savannah.
3. Antietam was a prison for Union soldiers.
4. The Union blockade of Gulf Coast was also named "the anaconda plan".
5. The president of the confederate states was Jefferson Davis.
6. The cause of the civil war was the debate on free states.
7. General Robert E. Lee surrendered to General Ulysses S. Grant April 9th, 1865. This was the end of the civil war.
8. The civil war began on April 12, 1861.
9. The President of the United States during the civil war was Abraham Lincoln.

TheCaseSolutions.com

Buffet's Bid for Media General's Newspapers

■ The SmokinSouth ■

Paris Penn, No. 1

$1.25

Getting To Know The South

What states were
involved with the south?

Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana, Alabama, Mississippi,

and Florida.

General Robert E. Lee

January 19, 1807- October 12, 1870

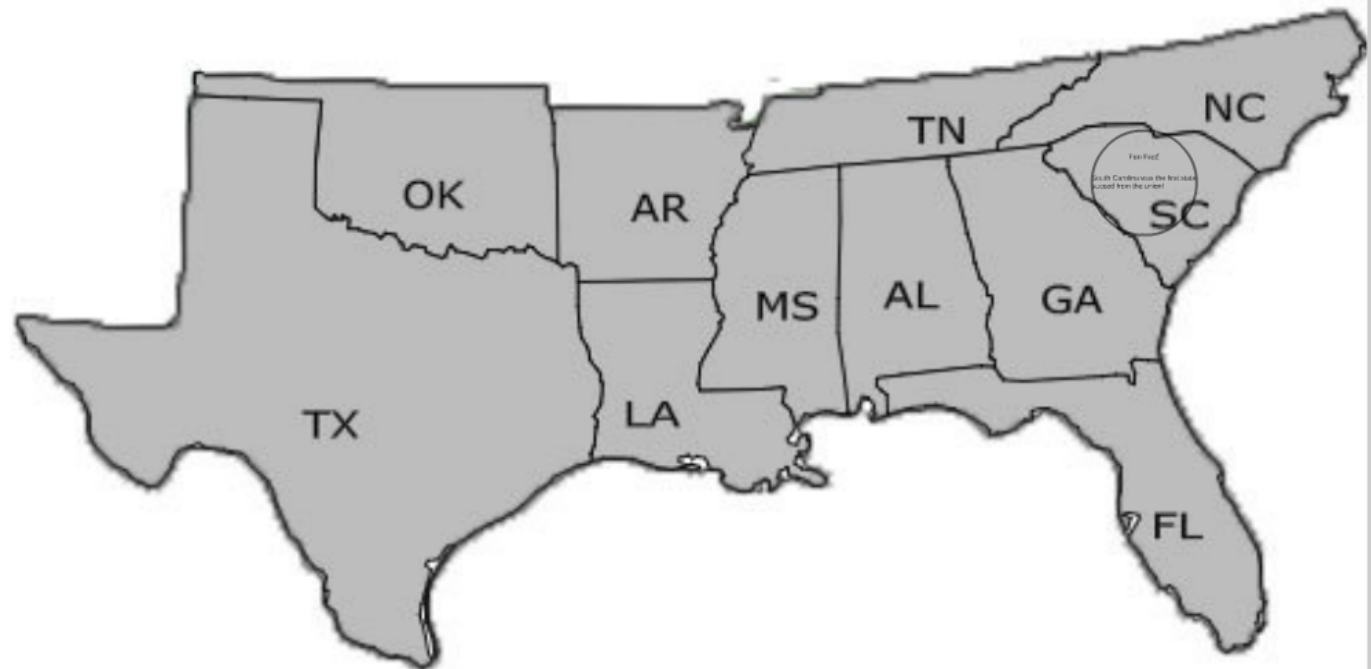

General Robert E. Lee was born January 19, 1807 in Stratford Hall, VA and died October 12, 1870 in Lexington, Virginia, VA. Lee was also the commander of the Confederate (South) troops. Before Lee became the general for the Confederate states, he did serve in the military. Robert E. Lee had 6 children and a wife named Mary Anna Custis Lee.

and Florida.

Getting To Know The South

What states were
involved with the south?

*Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana, Alabama, Mississippi,
Georgia, Florida, Tennessee, Kentucky, South Carolina,
North Carolina.*

Fun Fact!

South Carolina was the first state succeed from the union!

Buffet's Bid for Media General's Newspapers

The SmokinSouth

Paris Penn, No. 1

$1.25

Getting To Know The South

What states were involved with the south?

Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana, Alabama, Mississippi, Georgia, Florida, Tennessee, Kentucky, South Carolina, North Carolina.

General Robert E. Lee

January 19, 1807- October 12, 1870

General Robert E. Lee was born January 19, 1807 in Stratford Hall, VA and died October 12, 1870 in Lexington, Virginia, VA. Lee was also the commander of the Confederate Ground troops. Before Lee became the general for the confederate states, he did serve in the military Robert E. Lee had 5 children and a wife named Mary Anne Custis Lee.

Confederate Flag

The education of a man is never completed until he dies-Rober E. Lee

The Battle of Chickamauga

War of Secession

The battle of Chickamauga lasted three days and was the second bloodiest battle of the Civil War. These days were September 18, 19th through September 20, 1863. This was a battle against the union and the confederate south and the north. The battle of Chickamauga was the largest battle fought in Georgia. Overall, 25,000 soldiers were killed. The Confederates of the battle were Braxton Bragg and William Johnston. The battle of Chickamauga was a victory for the confederates.

Facts about the civil war

1. The battle of Antietam happened September 17, 1862 and was the bloodiest 1 day battle of the civil war.
2. During Sherman's march to the sea, he destroyed everything in his path from Atlanta to Savannah.
3. Antietam was a Union victory over the confederates.
4. The Union blockade of Gulf Coast was also named "the anaconda plan".
5. The president of the confederate states was Jefferson Davis.
6. The capital of the confederate states was Richmond, Virginia.
7. General Robert E. Lee surrendered to General Ulysses S. Grant April 9th, 1865. This was the end of the civil war.
8. The civil war began on April 12, 1861.
9. The President of the United States during the civil war was Abraham Lincoln.

TheCaseSolutions.com