An aerial photograph of a multi-lane highway. In the upper half, two fire trucks are visible, labeled 'E1' and 'E2' on their sides. The 'E1' truck is red and white, and the 'E2' truck is light blue and white. There are also several cars, including a yellow one and a blue one. In the lower half, there are more cars, including a red one and a white one. The road has white dashed lane markings and a solid white center line. The background shows green trees and a clear sky.
