DOG PARK Harvard Case Solution & Analysis

A Dog Park... In Madison!
- The Closer Dog Parks are to Campus, the healthier, happier, and healthier lives will be.
- Exercise, with or without pets, is beneficial for human health.
- Exercise, even if it's not with pets, is beneficial for human health.

The Results are in!

How Do We Get a Dog Park?
- Research a new park
- Spread the word among students, faculty, and staff
- Advocate for a new park

THeCaseSocomlutions.
DOG PARK Harvard Case Solution & Analysis

A Dog Park... In Madison!
- The closest Dog Park is Gulick Park.
- essay, plates, and the Beet.
- Every town should have a dog park.
- Madison especially.

Thank You for Reading!
A Dog Park... in Madison!

• The Closest Dog Parks are Guilford, Essex, Clinton, and Branford
• Every town should have a dog park, Madison especially!
Why?

- Local dog owners deserve a place for their dogs to run free, without the fear of traffic
- Dogs tend to get aggressive if they are secluded from other dogs or kept away from social events
- A Dog Park would benefit society by giving dog owners and their dogs a proper place to exercise
How Do We Get a Dog Park

- 2012 - Madison almost obtained a Dog Park
  - There was a very large amount of support for a Dog Park
- Speaking with local town planners and officials as well as zoning officers to determine where the park should be
Social Media Influence

Madison Dog Park

Send Message

Like Follow Recommend Save

Dog Park • Madison, Connecticut

HOME POSTS REVIEWS PHOTOS ABOUT

About
Hi! We created this page to promote the idea of a dog park in Madison, CT! We are a group of Daniel Hand High School students that want to create a local place for dogs to run and play freely.

mchugh.erin@madisonps.org