

Indonesia Trade Policy Harvard Case Solution & Analysis

TheCaseSolutions.com

Indonesia Trade Policy Harvard Case Solution & Analysis

What is Indonesia?

Cities in Indonesia

Indonesia has many large cities such as Jakarta, Surabaya, Bandung, and Medan. These cities are home to hundreds of thousands and are very popular tourist locations such as the capital city Jakarta.

Population

As of 2017 the population of Indonesia is around 262 million and the population density is 377 people per square mile.

Currency

Currency: One Indonesian Rupiah is equal to 75 100 hundred thousandths of a US dollar. The Rupiah symbol is Rp.

GDP

The Indonesian GDP of the year of 2015 was 861.93 billion US dollars. The country's GDP is mainly the exportation of natural resources.

Minimum Wage

Minimum wage in Indonesia is a big issue and has seen much protest in the past years. The minimum wage is 3,355,750 Rupiahs per month which is equal to 251 dollars in the US.

