RICH KIDZ SIDE

THE AMERICAN DREAM

MY SIDE

How does my poem pertains to the American Dreams?

As students one is mostly about things that people told me as a young girl that I never to change.

Line 1-5 "Is a young child, I got the message that I was concerned. Did that make me feel good? No, but at the same time no because... "Black people are poor"

Stanza two is about what goes on in today's society that I want to change or something that I've used to using. My biggest goal in life is to live somewhere where I can find more success or just fulfilling the thing I want.

Line 6- "The dream that I had was to move out of the hood"

In stanza three it tells you either to have a dream you have to know what you are dreaming of.

Line 8-9 "You have to find your biggest theme. Number one - "Plan it. Number two - "Dream it."

What happens to a Dream Achieved?

What happens to a dream achieved? Once it makes you feel like you have succeeded? As a young child, I got the message that I was concerned. Did that make me feel good? No, but at the same time no because... "Black people are poor"

The dream that I had was to move out of the hood. The thing that I had was to move out of the hood. From years later Treyvon got shot while wearing his hood. They people did from stuff like that I got my attention, is it because we're Black?

In order to achieve a dream The hard to find your biggest theme. Number one - "Plan it. Number two - "Dream it."

Then let's see what happens. Did you achieve it?

-Sinderia A.

What is the American Dream?

The American Dream can be anything that your dream of. The definition of the American Dream on google was mainly about operating up to opportunity for prosperity and success, social mobility that can be achieved through hard work.

IT'S CALLED THE AMERICAN DREAM BECAUSE YOU HAVE TO BE ASLEEP TO BELIEVE IT

How does the song pertains to dreams or dreams achieved?

The song "RIP Treyvon" pertains to the dream/hood achieved because the Rich Kidz theme of this song is to see themselves in Sinderia's poem with a hood on.

- It's easy for any Black African American to die while the white person getting away with it.
- The Rich Kidz want to change the world and want people to know that Treyvon's name is still alive.
