THE ELEMENTS IN THE HUMAN RESOURCE PLANNING

human resources planning the process of analyzing and identifying the need for and availability of human resources so that the organization can meet its objective they realize that they should hire a good worker and the workers will act as a root for their achievement

In order to hire the potential workers, human resource department of the company have to make an advertisement.

They usually put the information of the vacancy and characteristics and also the specification of the job in a notice at their outlets, so when the people go to their outlet, they will realize that there are job offered to them and eventually apply the job vacancy
