Home Depot

What is it?

Home Depot is your average everyday home improvement store. You know where you go to get that shiny throne or that brand new coat of paint for your house? Well where did that all start?

Where did it all start?

Well Home Depot all began in 1978, with Bernie Marcus and Arthur Blank were fired from an home improvement store and created a business plan that revolutionizes home improvement. With some help from investor Ken Langone and merchandising master Pat Farrah, the business plan came true and in June 22, 1979 they opened the first Home Depot in Atlanta, Georgia.

Products

Home depot has a significant amount of products, from toilets, to decor, machines, kitchen wear and alot more. Aside from the products they offer a variety of brands. Adding diversity to a customers shopping experience.

About the store?

Home depot offers a variety of products, and is very organized. as a store. They also offers how to tutorials for customers, so they know how to use the products and appliances they buy. This can also allow the consumer to save more, by knowing how to use the porduct. Which may attribute to their slogan:

saving. More doing.
