

What's The Worst That Could Happen (Bruce Coville)

Murphy has always had bad luck AND stage fright. He has had to live his life with the name Murphy Murphy. He wouldn't dare step on a stage until his crush asks him to be a part of her play. He is ready to perform and knows his lines well when the play starts...until he does something he shouldn't have and regrets it.

Kate The Great (Meg Cabot)

Jenny Greenly finally gets the chance to babysit her new neighbor for the first time. All is going well until Kate comes along and pressures Jenny to let her in. Everything seems to go downhill from there. Is Jenny tough enough to stand up to Kate? Will Jenny get to babysit again? Read Kate The Great to find out.

Black Holes And Basketball Shoes (Lori Williams)

Malk is poor and growing up in the hood. His mom works hard to support him and his 5 sisters. Malk is teased at school for wearing sneakers that everyone else has. What will Malk do to get the sneakers? Will he get them at all?

Why I Read This Book

We had to read it for Young Adult Literature and I finished it because I was curious to see if the stories we didn't read in class were any better than the ones we did.

Would I Recommend It?

I read the book in a way that it was unique with 13 different stories compiled and all wrote by different authors but I did not like the book in a way that I could relate to very few of the stories and some were lengthy and boring. I would not recommend this if you are not 13 yet.

Additional Information

- 228 pages
- Edited by James Howe
- A collection of 13 different stories where each author writes about their experience or makes up a fictional story about being 13.
