

What historical moments happened?

America got its independence during this time.

What clothing parallels can be made to other time periods?

Victorian gothic clothing is similar to the cloths in the 18th century because of the lace and the full skirts.

Who influenced the fashion?

The fashion in the 1700s was NOT influenced by a particular person, but by the century before. So it was influenced by the fashion during the 1680s-1690s.

Who were designers?

Because it was such a long time ago, there are no recorded designers for this time.

Quote

"The person, be it gentleman or lady, who has no pleasure in a good novel, must be intolerably stupid." - Jane Austen

The preferred silhouettes

A good look at the silhouettes figures with a corset that they achieved this by a corset.

What were the trends?

A lot of people during this time would wear wigs.

What colours were used?

Lighter colours were used for cloths only because darker dyes were more money.

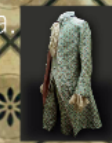

What movies are representative of the time?

There were no movies made in the 1700s, but there were movies that were set in the time period like the duchess and the sovereign's servant.

What fabrics were used?
Manly silk and wool were used for this time. cotton was banned in the countrys of England, France, and Prussia.

Western clothing from the 18th century

By: Claire Dick and Aundrea Wright

Thecasesolution.com

lace and the full skirts.

Who influenced the fashion?

The fashion in the 1700s was NOT influenced by a person, but by the century before. So it was influenced by the fashion during the 1600-1690s.

Who were designers?

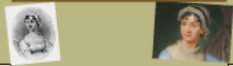

Because it was such a long time ago, there are no recorded designers for this time.

Quirts

The person, or a person's body, who has not pressure, or a good reason, must be irreparably injured.

— Jane Austen

What were the trends?

A lot of people during this time would wear wigs.

What colours were used?

Lighter colours were used for cloths only because darker dyes were more money.

The prominent silhouettes

What movies are representative of the time?

There were no movies made in the 1700s, but there were movies that were set in the time period like the duchess and the sovereign's servant.

What fabrics were used?
Manly silk and wool were used for this time. cotton was banned in the countrys of England, France, and Prussia.

Western clothing from the 18th century

By: Claire Dick and Aundrea Wright

Thecasesolution.com

Quote

"The person, be it gentleman or lady, who has not pleasure in a good novel, must be intolerably stupid."

~Jane Austen

Who influenced the fashion?

The fashion in the 1700s was NOT influenced by a person, but by the century before. So it was influenced by the fashion during the 1680-1690s.

Who were designers?

Because it was such a long time ago, there are no recorded designers for this time.

What were the trends?

A lot of people during this time would wear wigs.

What colours were used?

Lighter colours were used for cloths only because darker dyes were more money

The prominent silhouette

It was kind of like an hourglass figure with a full skirt. they achieved this by a corset.

lace and the full skirts.

Who influenced the fashion?

The fashion in the 1700s was NOT influenced by a person, but by the century before. So it was influenced by the fashion during the 1600-1690s.

Who were designers?

Because it was such a long time ago, there are no recorded designers for this time.

Quits

The person, or a person or lady, who has not pressure in a good mood, must be irreparably quiet.

— Jane Austen

What were the trends?

A lot of people during this time would wear wigs.

What colours were used?

Lighter colours were used for cloths only because darker dyes were more money.

The prominent silhouettes

What movies are representative of the time?

There were no movies made in the 1700s, but there were movies that were set in the time period like the duchess and the sovereign's servant.

What fabrics were used?
Manly silk and wool were used for this time. cotton was banned in the countrys of England, France, and Prussia.

Western clothing from the 18th century

By: Claire Dick and Aundrea Wright

Thecasesolution.com