Visual Aid Presentation

A flowchart diagram with four circles in a horizontal line, connected by arrows pointing from left to right. The circles contain text: "The answers to life's simple questions are harder than expected.....", "But leave it to us teachers to have impartial opinions, especially of our students.....", and two empty circles.

Sometimes the answers to life's simple questions are harder than expected.....

But leave it to us teachers to have impartial opinions, especially of our students.....
