

Elements of the Midterm Exam

This midterm exam will cover chapters 1-5 of McCormick's GOALS, Methods, and Outcomes. The test is worth 50 points and there are 3 types of parts to the test.

- I. Multiple Choice (25 questions - 1 point each = 25 points)
- II. Short Answer (PICK 3 questions - 5 points each = 15 points)
- III. Essay (PICK 1 question = 10 points)

You will have three hours to complete this exam and the exam MUST be completed in a single sitting.

Consider composing your short answer/essay answers in a Word document, so you can save as you go. Be conservative with the Blackboard submission box. It is a save or lose emergency. Double and recheck, and it helps with spelling and grammar.

Midterm Examination Details

Available from Wednesday,
February 14 at 12:00pm to
Monday, February 19 at 11:59pm
ON BLACKBOARD

TheCowanSolutions.com

Midterm Examination Details

Available from Wednesday,
February 14 at 12:01am to
Monday, February 19 at 11:59pm
ON BLACKBOARD

TheCaseSolution.com

Elements of the Midterm Exam

The midterm examination that will cover chapters 1-8 of McCornack's (2016) Reflect and Relate. The test is worth 50 points and there are three (3) parts to the test:

- I. Multiple Choice (25 questions - 1 point each = 25 points)
- II. Short Answer (PICK 3 questions - 5 points each = 15 points)
- III. Essay (PICK 1 question = 10 points)

You will have three hours to complete this exam and the exam MUST be completed in a single-sitting.

Consider composing your short answer/essay answers in a Word document, so you can save as you go, then copy/paste into the Blackboard submission box. This is in case of an emergency Blackboard meltdown, and it helps with spelling and grammar.

Midterm Examination Details

Available from Wednesday,
February 14 at 12:01am to
Monday, February 19 at 11:59pm
ON BLACKBOARD

TheCaseSolution.com

Elements of the Midterm Exam

The midterm examination that will cover chapters 1-8 of McCornack's (2016) Reflect and Relate. The test is worth 50 points and there are three (3) parts to the test:

- I. Multiple Choice (25 questions - 1 point each = 25 points)
- II. Short Answer (PICK 3 questions - 5 points each = 15 points)
- III. Essay (PICK 1 question = 10 points)

You will have three hours to complete this exam and the exam MUST be completed in a single-sitting.

Consider composing your short answer/essay answers in a Word document, so you can save as you go, then copy/paste into the Blackboard submission box. This is in case of an emergency Blackboard meltdown, and it helps with spelling and grammar.